Message from the Superintendent

The Marysville Joint Unified School District's vision is to provide a world-class education for every child, every day. Our mission is to graduate students who have acquired the knowledge, skills, and attitudes necessary to achieve significant career, educational, civic, and personal goals, which will enrich our society. In tandem with our vision and mission, the district believes it is critical for all students to acquire academic English.

We also recognize and value the importance of nurturing one of the most important resources of our district: the languages and cultures of our diverse student population. We know that a student cannot learn what he/she cannot understand.

The Marysville Joint Unified School District extends this vision and mission to our students through continued review and implementation of the district's goals through adoption of the new Master Plan for English learners.

The Master Plan is a guide to assist all schools in providing every identified student an instructional program which includes daily English language development, access to the core curriculum, and promotion of multicultural proficiency. The Master Plan demonstrates a collaborative effort among all departments to effectively serve English learners. It also demonstrates our commitment to collaborate with all members of our extended learning community: employees, parents, students, and community partners because together we can devise compelling and powerful programs for our English learners.

Many thanks to the teachers, administrators, support staff, and parents for their dedication and collaboration on the Master Plan. We also greatly appreciate the support and guidance of the California Department of Education, the Sacramento County Office of Education, and the San Joaquin County Office of Education.

Sincerely,

Gay S. Todd, Ed.D.
Superintendent

Our Vision for the Education of Children

- All students can meet and even exceed the outcomes established in Board Policy for graduation requirements and grade level promotion/retention standards.
- All students will have multiple ways of learning and demonstrating that they have learned those things required by district graduation requirements and grade level promotion/retention standards.
- Student success is a self-fulfilling process; the more we believe that all students can be successful and the more students experience success, the more success will happen.
- We have the ability within our district and community to develop the resources necessary to ensure that all students experience success.
- The achievement of this belief will take place in a life-long learning environment for Board, staff, students, and parents.

Chapter ONE

Identification,
Assessment,
And
Placement

State and Federal Requirements

II – EL 4: Identification, Assessment, and Notification

- The LEA properly identifies, assesses, and reports all students who have a primary language other than English.

VI – EL 17: Appropriate Student Placement

- All Pupils are placed in English language classrooms unless a parental exception waiver has been granted for an alternative placement.

VI – EL 18: Parental Exception Waiver

- Parents and guardians of ELs are informed of the placement of their children in an English Language classroom and are notified of an opportunity to apply for a parental exception waiver for their children to participate in an alternative program.

INITIAL IDENTIFICATION, ASSESSMENT, AND PLACEMENT

Step 1: Registration, including completion of the Home Language Survey

Parents go to the school site in order to register for school. At the school, parents complete a Home Language Survey, as required by state law. This survey is completed the first time the parent enrolls the child in the district, and the results are maintained thereafter.

If the answers to items 1, 2, and 3 are “English,” the child is classified as English Only (EO) and placed into a mainstream English class. See step #2 for students with a language other than English for #4.

Parents cannot “opt out” of the CELDT because English language proficiency assessment is both a federal (NCLB Title I, section 1111[b][7] and Title III, 2002) and state requirement (Education Code 313). For information regarding “opting out” of English language instructional services, contact the CDE Language Policy and Leadership Office at 916-319-0845.

If a language other than English was inaccurately included in on HLS, a parent/guardian may update the HLS to accurately reflect the language(s) spoken in the home. However, if a pupil has already completed a CELDT and has been designated an English Learner, the pupil must take the assessment annually until they are reclassified fluent English proficient.

Step 2: English Language Proficiency Assessment

If any of Items 1, 2, or 3 on the Home Language Survey are answered with a language other than English, California state regulations require the district test the student for English proficiency within 30 calendar days of initial enrollment.

However, if the answer to item 4 is a language other than English, the student should be closely monitored for English proficiency, and other measures should be reviewed. If school personnel have doubts, the child should be assessed using the CELDT as quickly as possible. The assessment used to determine initial English proficiency is the California English Language Development Test (CELDT). The CELDT is a standardized language proficiency test designed to measure the English fluency of non-native speakers.

The CELDT is given by trained personnel at the site or district level. MJUSD strives to accomplish administration of the CELDT as soon as possible, preferably within a day or two (see page 7 for Kindergarten registration, which is an exception to this timeline). The goal is to make the enrollment and initial assessment process as convenient for parent and child as possible.

The child receives a score on each part of the CELDT taken (Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing) as well as an overall score. The score types used include: raw score, scaled score, and proficiency level. A preliminary score on an initial CELDT is calculated for the purposes of placement and program options. These preliminary results and program options, as well as results from the primary language assessment, if indicated, are communicated to the parent via the Initial Assessment Results and Program Placement form (EL form # 2).

At this time, the CELDT results are also forwarded to the test publisher, Educational Data Systems (EDS), for official scoring. In cases where the preliminary and official scores differ, the official EDS results override preliminary scoring done at the district level.

What to do:

Step 1:
Registration, Including completion of the Home Language Survey

Step 2:
English Language Proficiency Assessment

Step 3:
Primary Language Assessment

Step 4:
Parent Notification of Results and Placement

Step 5:
Program Placement

Communication
Results of the CELDT and the primary language assessments are communicated to the parents via the Parent Notification of Initial Assessment and Program Placement Form. Parents will be notified via the Primary Language Testing Exemption form if testing is not available in the student's primary language.

Results from the CELDT and a copy of the Initial Assessment and Program Placement Form are stored in the green EL folder in the student's cumulative folder, and in the district's database for future use in monitoring student progress and program evaluation.

On the basis of the English language assessment, students are classified as either Initially Fluent English Proficient (IFEP) or English Learner (EL). The parents of IFEP students are informed of the results. English Learners proceed to primary language assessment (Step 3).

Step 3: Primary Language Assessment

An initial assessment of the English Learner's primary language is conducted as soon as possible after the completion of English language assessment, but no later than 90 calendar days after the date of registration.

Results of the primary language assessments are communicated to the parents via the Parent Notification of Initial Assessment and Program Placement Form. Parents will be notified via the Primary Language Testing Exemption form if testing is not available in the student's primary language. The results of the primary language assessments are placed in the student's EL green folder and entered in the district database. The results of this testing are used to calculate students' literacy development in the primary language and to make program recommendations.

Step 4: Parent Notification of Results and Placement

Upon completion of the testing, parents are notified of the results and given a description of the available program options, as well as the benefits of each option.

The results of the Home Language Survey and the language assessments (and, in the case of transfer students, the results of a review of transcripts and previous program placement noted in the registration form) are used to define the options open to students for program placement.

The process will include determination of the most appropriate EL program for the student. This is determined in the following manner:

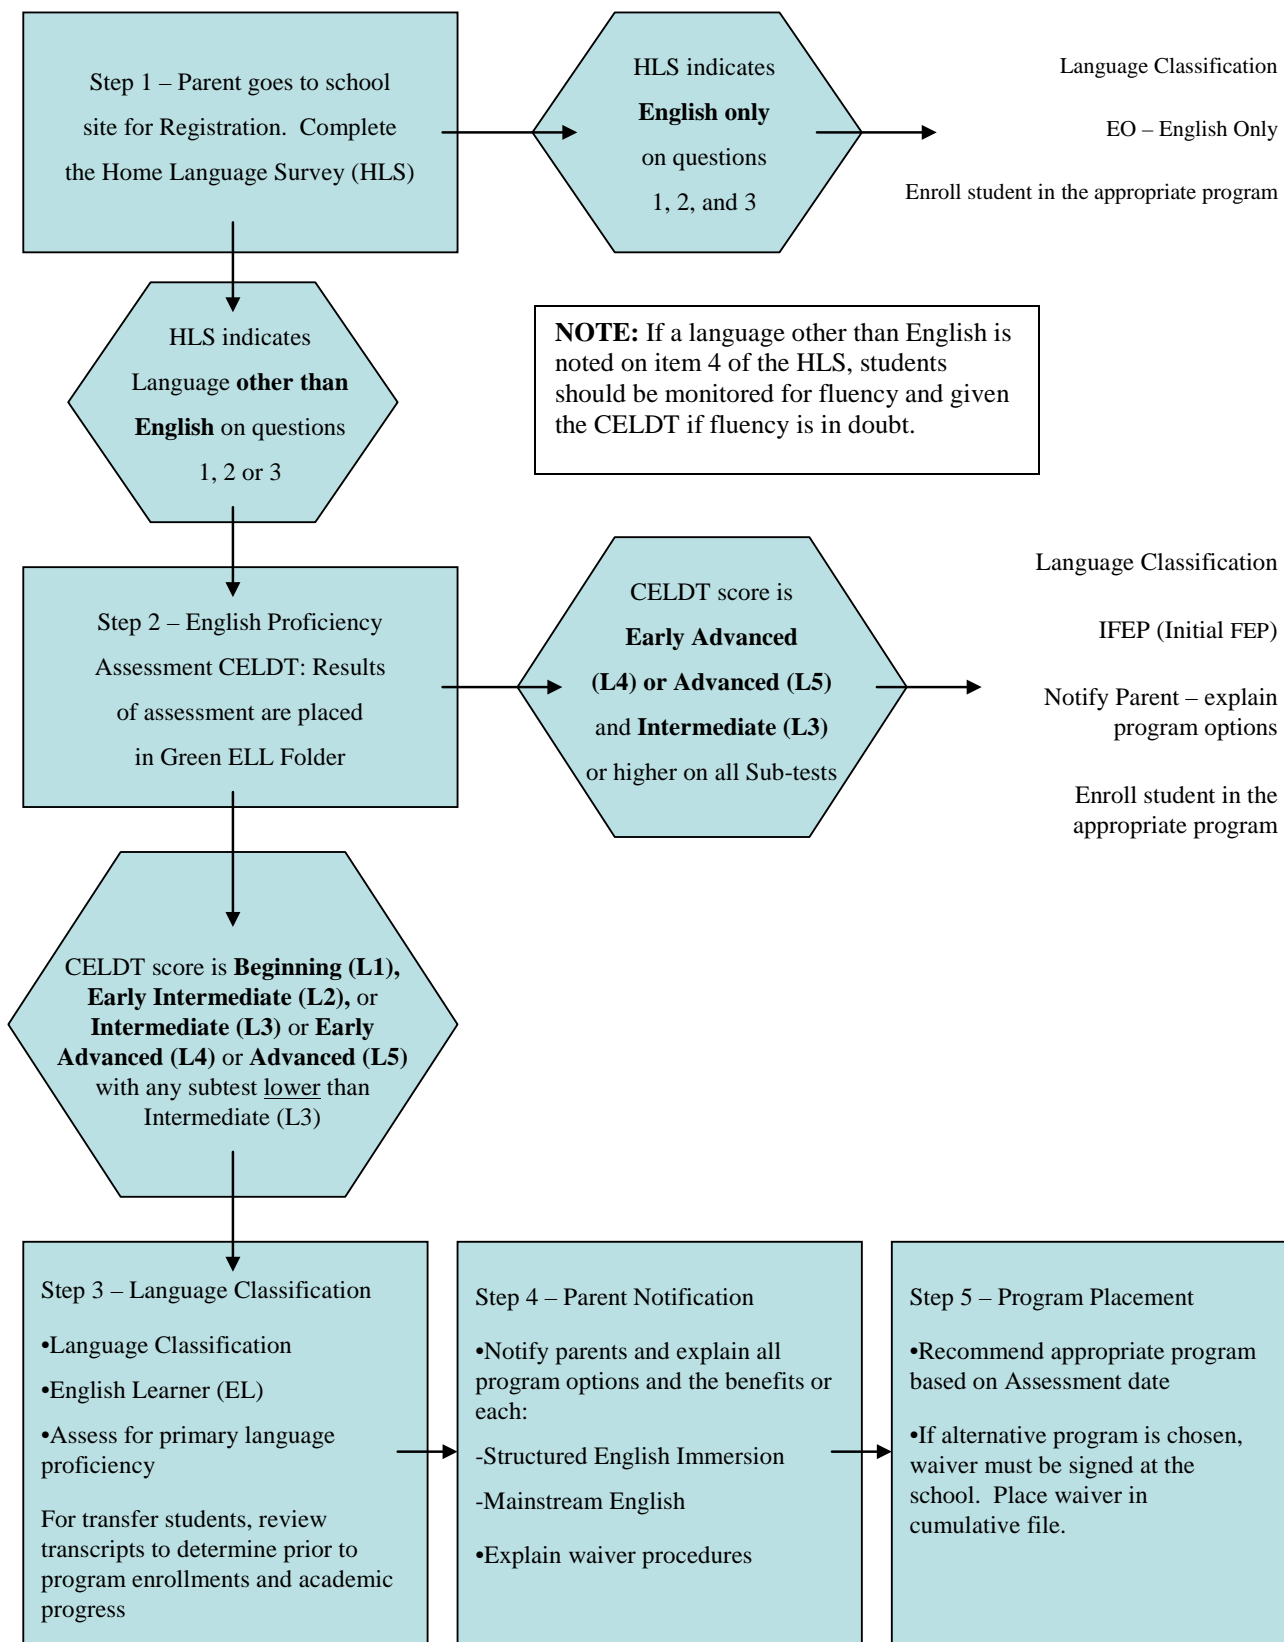

Determine whether the student is reasonably fluent in English.

The criteria for reasonable fluency in English include:

1. Student's overall proficiency level is Early Advanced or higher, and
2. Each skill area proficiency level is Intermediate or higher

The green EL folder is typically located inside the student's permanent cumulative record. All information regarding assessment, placement, and waivers is kept inside this folder.

If the child is reasonably fluent in English by these criteria, a placement in a mainstream English program is recommended, including additional support services as appropriate. Support services in the mainstream program must include one or more of the following, as needed:

- Content instruction using SDAIE techniques
- Specialized instruction by a Reading or Literacy Specialist
- English Language Development
- Participation in Benchmark, Strategic or Intensive interventions
- Primary language instruction/support
- Before and/or after school intervention programs
- Tutoring
- Other appropriate services

If a child is not reasonably fluent in English, then a placement in a Structured English Immersion (SEI) program is recommended. In SEI, the instruction is nearly all in English, with the primary language used to support the child's learning as necessary. The types of support services listed in the previous paragraph are also provided as needed.

Step 5: Program Placement

Once the assessment scores have been analyzed and sent to the parents with the program options and recommended placement, an appropriate program is assigned to the student. If parents select an alternative program, they must complete and file a Parental Exception Waiver Request form (EL form #13) at the child's school site. The waiver will be approved unless it is deemed by school personnel that it is not in the best interest of the student. Further, a waiver request may be denied if there is not currently a class in place and there are not a sufficient number of students to create the class. Parents have the right to appeal a denial. The waiver request must be filed annually. If parents choose to opt out of a Structured English Immersion program to have their student placed in an English Language Mainstream class, a "Request to Withdraw" form (EL form #12) must be completed annually. Parents may choose to opt out of a program for the student but cannot opt out of EL services such as ELD instruction and CELDT.

English Learners are given the CELDT every year until they are reclassified. Once the CELDT results are received from the test publisher, parents will receive the Annual Assessment and Program Placement Form which will detail current CELDT results as well as the recommended placement for the following year.

Copies of communication regarding assessments, placement, and waiver, when applicable are placed into the student's green EL folder:

- The EL folder lists all documentation on the outside cover required for the student.
- All EL documentation is to be kept in this folder.
- The folder is usually kept in the child's cumulative folder, however in some cases, the EL folder is kept in one primary location at the school site for ease of record keeping and access.
- In case of student transfer, the green EL folder must be placed in the cumulative folder to ensure all documentation is received at the student's new school.

In this section

Legislative Restrictions in Enrollment in Alternative Programs

According to the California's Ed Code (305, 306, 310, 311, 48985), the following types of EL students under 10 years old must be placed in a mainstream or SEI program for at least 30 days before a request for an alternative program can be honored:

- a. Students in a California school for the first time:
 - New Kindergartners/Transitional Kindergartners
 - Transfers from out of state
 - Students entering a US school the first time
- b. Students transferring from another California school who have not completed the 30-day requirement in another school

All other English Learners, including those who have completed the 30-day requirement in another school, may enter an alternative program immediately.

Annual Kindergarten & Transitional Kindergarten (TK) Registration, Assessment, and Placement

Because of the large number of new Kindergarteners that must be assessed and placed at the beginning of each school year, a special process is used for handling this group.

1. Kindergarten and TK pre-registration begins in May of the school year preceding the child's entrance into kindergarten and TK. However, CELDT testing, by state mandate, may not begin until July. When the parent pre-registers the child, the Home Language Survey is completed. If the HLS indicates a language other than English is spoken, the student is scheduled for testing as soon as possible.

2. Children who pre-register have the opportunity to participate in Kinder Camp. Kinder Camp is four weeks of instruction starting mid-July and completing before the start of the new school year. Any student whose Home Language Survey indicates a language other than English is spoken is given the CELDT test, which is then hand scored for appropriate placement. Children who do not attend Kinder Camp or those who register at the start of school will be given the CELDT (as indicated by the HLS) as soon as possible within the testing window. A trained team of district staff is used for all CELDT and primary language testing.

3. Assessment results are processed as quickly as possible, and parents notified of the results and of the student's recommended placement. The procedures described above are used regarding determination of the placement, notification of the parents, review of and assistance in completion of the waiver process, and placement into the selected program.
4. Once the assessments are completed, children are provided instructional programs that are overwhelmingly in English for the mandatory 30 calendar days. Every English Learner under 10 years of age must initially be placed in a class room taught overwhelmingly in English for not less than 30 calendar days beginning the first day of instruction. This is a one-time requirement.

Transfer Students

1. Transfer between district schools.

Parents make intra-district transfer requests through the Student Attendance and Discipline Office. Intra-district transfer forms are first sent to the student's school of residence to be signed and then to the receiving school for approval. All data regarding the student's EL assessment history – current scores, current placement, records of academic progress, and interventions – are sent to the receiving school. The EL Specialist and site principal at the receiving school are responsible for reviewing the student's transcripts and records (including information in the district's database system) and ensuring that the student is properly placed in the appropriate type of program, as specified in the student's current record.

2. Transfer from other California schools, out of state, other countries, or private schools.

Students transferring into the district from another district within the state typically have records of a home language status (EO, IFEP, EL), and scores on mandated assessments.

Students entering MJUSD who are new to the state or from another country follow the language assessment, classification and placement process described above. The date they enrolled in the district is entered into their records as the date they first enrolled in a California school and the date they first enrolled in a US school.

These students do not need to go through the MJUSD initial identification process. Records are obtained from the previous school/district, and entered into the district's record keeping system. If these records are not available within ten days, English and primary language assessments proceed and the identification, notification, and placement process is implemented per the above description. The student's transcripts are reviewed to determine prior placement and academic history. This procedure also applies to students transferring from private schools.

Training for Staff and Administrators on Initial Identification, Placement, Parental Rights, and Informed Consent

The district provides ongoing training for administrators and staff on procedures relating to initial identification, placement, parental rights and informed consent, including the waiver process. The persons to be trained include district office staff as needed, the school principals and office staff members, EL Specialists/facilitators or coordinators, teachers, para-educators, and other staff as necessary.

Trained staff members at the district and site levels work to make sure all EL students are assessed and placed appropriately.

INSTRUCTIONAL PROGRAMS (K – 12)

The Marysville Joint Unified School District provides services to English Learners to ensure that these students are acquiring English language proficiency and recouping any academic deficits that may have been incurred in other areas of the core curriculum.

In accordance with state and federal legal requirements, the Marysville Joint Unified School District offers a number of program models to serve English Learners. Parental involvement in decisions regarding the education of their children is required and critical to students' academic success. Marysville offers the following program options for English Learners:

English Language Programs:

- Structured English Immersion (TK/K – 12)
- English Language Mainstream (TK/K – 12)

Bilingual Alternative Program

- Primary language skills instruction program (TK/K – 12)
- The Bilingual Alternative program is subject to a minimum enrollment of 20 students per grade level. This program is not currently being offered as requests are too few. Should the interest increase to the minimum level, the Bilingual Alternative program will be offered at designated school sites. Existing bus routes may accommodate transportation needs, but in some instances, parents may be responsible for the transportation of the student to the alternative program site.

All instructional programs designed for English Learners contain the following components:

- Well-articulated, standards-based, differentiated English Language Development instruction, specifically designed for English learners.
- Well articulated, standards-based core curriculum instruction provided either through the primary language or through Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (SDAIE).
- Structured activities designed to develop multi-cultural competency and positive self-esteem.
- Primary language support as needed
- Parental involvement and participation as available.

Structured English Immersion Program (SEI)

Structured English Immersion is an English language acquisition process in which nearly all classroom instruction is in English, but the curriculum and presentation are specifically designed for children who are learning the language. Students are taught subjects “overwhelmingly,” but not exclusively, in English. Teachers and aides may provide primary language support to assist students in accessing core curriculum. Teachers may also use the student’s primary language in content instruction to motivate, clarify, direct, support, and explain. The goal of the Structured English Immersion Program is for English Learners to develop a reasonable level of proficiency in English. Access to core content is accomplished through instructional strategies using specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (SDAIE) techniques to enable English learners to gain access to grade level subject matter in mathematics, social studies, science, and other academic subjects required for grade promotion and/or graduation.

Program Requirements:

- Parents must be informed of the placement of their children in a Structured English Immersion Program and must be notified of the opportunity to apply for a parental exception waiver.
- All EL students receive daily ELD instruction based on the district-adopted program and state standards from an appropriately certificated teacher. Instruction must include listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Materials:

State and/or district adopted and/or approved standards based materials are utilized. Materials may include print, audio, visual, graphic, and electronic resources. Core, as well as supplemental materials is utilized. Primary language materials are used as needed for reinforcement.

SEI Program for English Learners with less than reasonable fluency:

Kindergarten students receive:

- 30 minutes of teacher-directed instruction with an emphasis on English vocabulary development; Reading Readiness.
- SDAIE Math Readiness
- SDAIE Science, health, social studies, fine arts
- Primary language may be used as necessary for support with all of the above instruction.
- Instruction is integrated across the curriculum, and promotes self-image and cross-cultural understanding.

First through Third Graders receive:

- 30 minutes of teacher-directed instruction with an emphasis on English vocabulary development.
- Language arts.
- SDAIE Math, science, health, social studies, and fine arts, with primary language support as necessary.
- Instruction is integrated across the curriculum, and promotes self-image and cross-cultural understanding.

Fourth and Fifth graders receive:

- 30 minutes of teacher-directed instruction with an emphasis on English vocabulary development; i.e. High Point and other standards-based supplemental materials.
- Language arts
- SDAIE Math, science, health, social studies, and fine arts, with primary language support as necessary.
- Instruction is integrated across the curriculum, and promotes self-image and cross-cultural understanding.

Structured English Immersion Grades 6 – 12 Program Elements:

- English Language Development Instruction
- Academic content courses in Math, Science, and Social Studies
- Appropriate primary language support for CELDT Levels 1 and 2 to ensure access to core.
- Enrollment of students in more contextualized electives to avoid isolation and foster acquisition of English.
- Availability of appropriate standards-based, baseline and supplemental materials which provide access to core curriculum.
- Properly certified teachers, (CLAD, BCLAD) or equivalent.

Student grouping:

The successful grouping of students is a critical feature of a successful SEI program and includes the following:

- Students are placed into their ELD classes based on English proficiency level. It is preferred that only one ELD level be included in each class, and no more than two levels should be combined.
- SEI may be an appropriate placement for Special Education students, providing they are English Learners at ELD levels 1, 2, or 3 and they have support from the Special Education Program. The individualized education program (IEP) team determines placement of each special education student regardless of language proficiency.

PRIMARY LANGUAGE SUPPORT is not the same as primary language instruction. It is provided by a teacher who is bilingual or a trained bilingual para-educator, and is a further means of increasing access to core curriculum taught in English.

English Language Mainstream Program (TK/K-12)

The mainstream program is designed for English learners (TK/K-12) who have met the district criteria for reasonable fluency in English are placed in the ELD Mainstream classrooms. This setting is also available for English Learners whose parents have withdrawn them from the SEI program. Students receive advanced ELD instruction, with emphasis on reading and writing. Additional, appropriate services are put in place to ensure student achievement. Grade level content instruction is provided using SDAIE, with primary language support as necessary. Mainstreamed EL students require careful monitoring and attention to their progress towards reclassification.

Program Requirements:

- Core instruction in language arts, math, science, and social science is taught in English using district-adopted materials and complying with state standards.
- Students participate in activities that promote multi-cultural understanding and positive self-esteem.
- All English Learners participate in English Language Development classes or English classes taught by CLAD (or equivalent) teachers until they are reclassified.
- Progress toward meeting criteria for reclassification is carefully monitored.
- Extended learning and enrichment provided to “close the achievement gap” and address deficits.

Materials:

State adopted and/or standards based materials are utilized, both core and supplemental. Materials may include print, audio visual, graphic and electronic resources. Primary language materials are used as needed to reinforce core academic skills.

BILINGUAL ALTERNATIVE PROGRAM

The goal of the Bilingual Alternative program is acquisition of academic proficiency in two languages: English and the student's primary language, together with the mastery of academic core content and multicultural proficiency. Instruction is in the student's primary language and English. Primary language instruction supports the student's ability to meet grade level standards while in the process of becoming fluent in English. As the child increases in English fluency, instruction in English increases. The program utilizes an 80-20 model, in which instruction in TK/Kindergarten is 80% in the student's primary language and 20% in English, with decreasing primary language and increasing English each year, until by 6th grade, 20% is in the student's primary language and 80% is in English. Per parent choice EL's can continue in the program after attaining reasonable English fluency.

SECONDARY ACADEMIC PROGRAMS FOR ENGLISH LEARNERS IN MARYSVILLE JOINT UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

BILINGUAL ALTERNATIVE PROGRAM

The goal of the Bilingual Alternative program is acquisition of academic proficiency in two languages: English and the student's primary language, together with the mastery of academic core content and multicultural proficiency. Instruction is in the student's primary language and English. Primary language instruction supports the student's ability to meet grade level standards while in the process of becoming fluent in English. As the child increases in English fluency, instruction in English increases. The program utilizes an 80-20 model, in which instruction in TK/Kindergarten is 80% in the student's primary language and 20% in English, with decreasing primary language and increasing English each year, until by 6th grade, 20% is in the student's primary language and 80% is in English. Per parent choice, EL's can continue in the program after attaining reasonable English fluency.

Different Groups of English Learners Need Different Services

All students in MJUSD are held to the highest possible standards. This is true of English Learners, as well. Students' abilities are assessed, and interventions necessary to help close any achievement gap are put into place

* The intervention needs of students in grades TK/K-3 who fall below grade level are addressed using appropriate ancillaries from Core program and/or supplemental ELD materials during workshop and/or ELD time.

Secondary Level Concerns

EL Placement at the Secondary level is complex.

- English Learners at this level often have varied educational needs.
- Students present unique complexities in terms of their grade levels, schooling histories, and varying literacy development in their primary language and English.

English Learners at the secondary level do not come with similar backgrounds or similar educational needs. Students present unique complexities in terms of their grade levels, schooling histories, and varying literacy development in their primary language and English. Appropriate student placement will need to consider language assessment results in English and the primary language, teacher evaluations and recommendations, and students' length of time in school. The administrator or counselor in charge of scheduling, in concert with the EL Specialist, should weigh all of the factors present when planning program participation.

At the secondary level, there are four distinct groups of EL students. These include:

1. Newly arrived English learners with adequate formal schooling;
2. Newly arrived English learners with limited formal schooling (under schooled)
3. Long term English learners (>6 years as EL).
4. English Learners who are meeting benchmarks and are making expected progress toward language and academic goals.

NEWLY ARRIVED ENGLISH LEARNERS WITH ADEQUATE FORMAL SCHOOLING

These students may or may not have had some exposure to the formal study of English; however, they have had a formal educational program in their native country. Students are usually on grade level with respect to the expectations of the schools in their native country, and most have the content knowledge background that supports them in their content instructions in English. Depending on their English proficiency upon initial enrollment, students may need an additional year of high school in order to master English, and meet High School Exit Exam requirements and graduation courses of study. It is extremely important that these students be given credit for course work already completed in their native country so that they can meet high school course requirements and graduation standards within a reasonable amount of time. Beginning (CELDT 1 and CELDT 2) students typically will benefit from the alternative bilingual program that may be provided with a parental exception waiver. This program begins with:

- Year long leveled English language development – 2 periods or 2 blocks
 - Students at ELD levels 1 and 2 should not be mixed for instruction, due to great differences in language development needs.
- Academic content classes taught in the primary language
- Electives that are non-language dependent

CELDT 3 and above students will need:

- Year long leveled English language development (ELD of Sheltered English)
- Academic content classes taught through SDAIE with primary language support
- Electives

NEWLY ARRIVED ENGLISH LEARNERS WITH INADEQUATE FORMAL SCHOOLING

Immigrant students with little or no prior schooling typically score at the beginning level of their reading and writing in their primary language, and have grade three or below skills in Math. Many students come with interrupted schooling in their native country and face tremendous difficulty in completing an academic secondary program. These students need an instructional program that will address their primary language literacy needs, and a flexible high school program that will allow them to fulfill graduation requirements with an additional one or two years.

Students might need:

- Year long leveled English language development – 2 periods or 2 blocks
- L1 literacy
- Math taught or supported in the primary language
- Electives that are less language dependent in the beginning years.

LONG TERM ENGLISH LEARNERS

Students classified as long-term English Learners in Marysville Joint Unified School District have more than six years with uninterrupted schooling in the United States. Students often have high oral fluency in English, and in some cases have “reasonably fluent” proficiency (CELDT 4 & 5), but for a variety of reasons they have not yet achieved the academic requirements to qualify for reclassification. In determining the program placement of long term English Learners, it is important to first identify the students’ academic and linguistic needs and consider the following:

- Number of years enrolled in U.S. schools
- Quality and consistency of English Language Development instruction
- Consistency of instructional program
- Student’s overall educational history

Consideration of these factors will help determine if the student’s performance is related to his/her English Language Development, or other factors.

Student will need:

- English Language Development, either through an SEI or ELM class that addresses both language and literacy skills
- Sheltered or English mainstream instruction in the core subjects provided by an appropriately CLAD/BCLAD certified teacher
- Counseling and monitoring to ensure that students are enrolled in classes that meet high school graduation and post secondary requirements
- Intervention support (before or during the school day)

The district is currently developing placement and evaluation procedures specifically for long term secondary EL students.

CONSIDERATIONS FOR ALL EL PROGRAMS

English Learners are provided with access to well-articulated, standards-based curriculum. In Structured English Immersion and Mainstream English settings, the core instruction occurs in English, with the use of Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (SDAIE) strategies and some primary language instruction or support as needed and feasible.

COMMITMENT TO SPECIAL EDUCATION SERVICES: PRIMARY AND SECONDARY PROGRAMS

English Learners have access to Special Education services just as all other students in MJUSD. Careful review by the Student Study Team of all referrals takes place first, which includes second language surveys, SST referral forms, modifications and intervention, review of student records, verification of current hearing and vision testing, parent interview as well as interview with student, if age appropriate. This review is required to determine if Special Education assessment is needed and to determine if student performance is reflective of expected patterns of the student's second language acquisition based on schooling, and time in this country, and whether growth is being made.

When it is determined that an English Learner needs to be assessed, whether it be speech, academic, or cognition, testing will be initiated upon parent's written approval. Assessments will be conducted in the primary language of the student and/or English, as appropriate, making certain that cultural differences are taken into consideration when determining eligibility.

Instructional decisions related to student's language acquisition status must be described in the Individualized Education Plan (IEP). When students qualify for Special Education Services, linguistically and developmentally appropriate goals and objectives are written based on the student's needs. The IEP will include goals that address English Language development as well as goals that support access to the content areas through primary language instruction and/or support. To the extent that the student's English Language Development program is related to the student's need for Special Education services, the IEP must document the provision of these services.

English Learners in grades TK/K-12 with an IEP, as reflected on CELDT sub scores in listening and speaking, reading, and/or writing continue to receive ELD and SDAIE instruction in conjunction and collaboration with the general education teacher. Special Education staff, including Special Day Class staff, will receive the same training as general education staff in working with English Learners. In SDC classes, the Special Education staff provides ELD instruction to the English Learner. Bilingual para-educators may be assigned to the program to provide direct support to English Learners with an IEP.

OVERCOMING ACADEMIC DEFICITS: THE MJUSD EL INTERVENTION CATCH-UP PLAN

IN THE FALL and in THE SPRING, the LRT meets to determine which English Learners are not making acceptable progress.

The Pre-Referral Checklist is used as a guide to document what has been tried.

A Catch-up Plan is created to address the EL student's specific needs.

October plans are implemented for the remainder of the school year. Spring plans through the first term of the next year.

Efficacy of plan is reviewed using Part 2 of the Intervention Catch-up Plan.

The academic performance of EL's is monitored to determine appropriate growth targets have been met and to identify developing academic deficits. The Annual EL Monitoring form is used to monitor AMAO's by October 31. The Mid Year Monitoring form is used to monitor progress after district assessments and at the ends of grading periods.

No later than October, the LRT reviews the results of the spring State Academic Testing (end-of-year results on district-identified assessments for Kindergarten and first graders) and revises or develops an Intervention Catch-Up Plan for each student not meeting growth expectations. The Intervention Catch-Up Plan is reviewed with the parent, modified if necessary to include the parental input, and documented on the appropriate forms including: EL Intervention Learning Plan Part 1, EL Intervention Learning Plan Part 2 and Site Based Catch-Up Intervention for ELs. This plan includes interventions to be provided and timelines.

The student is provided with the intervention programs/services as specified in the EL Catch-up plan. His/her progress is carefully monitored throughout the school year. Modifications to the plan are made when necessary. All records of the student's progress are kept in the student's EL Folder.

Students are assessed throughout the year and, if they are not performing on grade level, they are identified as in need of Benchmark (less than 1 year below grade level), Strategic (1 to 1.9 years below grade level) or Intensive (2 or more years below grade level) academic interventions. English language proficiency is also assessed to ensure that the intervention meets the student's need, whether it is academic, linguistic or both.

Starting in the spring of each year, the Language Review Team (LRT), which includes the teacher, EL Specialist, principal, and others with relevant information, reviews the CELDT scores and the Mid Year Progress Monitoring forms of all English Learners, as well as the Reclassification Follow-up forms for R-FEP students reclassified within the past two years and identifies students whose growth is not satisfactory.

At this meeting, the teacher shares any interventions that have been implemented, using the Pre-Referral Checklist as a guide. The LRT develops an EL Intervention Catch-Up Plan to be implemented through the first quarter of the following year. The EL Intervention Catch Up plan is described via the Intervention Catch-Up Plan for EL's Form. A letter is mailed home notifying the parents that their child has been identified for intervention.

The following spring, the Language Review Team assesses the growth of students with EL Intervention Catch-up Plans and the effectiveness of their plan.

- If the student continues to make inadequate progress, a meeting is held with the Language Review Team, which includes the parent.
- A new EL Intervention Catch-up Plan is developed based on the analysis of the student's needs and the results of the evaluation from the previous interventions.

Group data are disaggregated and examined to measure the effectiveness of the various intervention programs for different groups of English Learners.

During the second year of intervention, the student's progress is monitored regularly, and adjustments and modifications to the EL Intervention Catch-up Plan made when necessary. Records of this monitoring and adjustment process are kept in the student's EL Folder. At the end of the second year of intervention, the student's most recent data is reviewed by the Language Review Team to assess growth and program effectiveness. If the student continues to make inadequate progress in the second year, he/she is referred to the Student Study Team (SST) for a more comprehensive examination of his/her needs, and planning of an appropriate program. The student's progress and the program effectiveness are then monitored through the SST process. A student may also be referred to the Student Study Team prior to the completion of two years of intervention services through the Language Review Team.

Progress and Reclassification

State and Federal Requirements

IV – EL: Reclassification

- The LEA reclassifies a pupil from EL to proficient in English by using a process and criteria.
- The LEA maintains in the Pupil's permanent record and to ensure transfer of documentation.
- The LEA monitors for a minimum of two years the progress reclassified to ensure correct classification, placement, and additional academic support, if needed.

Monitoring of Student Progress and Reclassification

MONITORING OF STUDENT PROGRESS

Student progress is monitored throughout the year for purposes of instruction and reclassification. Data from a combination of state and federal measures, as well as district interim and program embedded assessments are used. These measures are help to determine English language growth and proficiency and to evaluate academic performance.

USE OF ASSESSMENT DATA FOR INSTRUCTIONAL PLANNING

Teachers use program-embedded assessments, as well as the district interim assessments, to review student progress every 6 to 9 weeks. Program modifications and interventions for classroom instruction are planned utilizing the data. Multiple measures from throughout the year, as well as annual State assessments and CELDT results are used to determine students' academic needs as far as benchmark, strategic, or intensive intervention. Students are assigned to appropriate instructional schedules upon examination of this data.

ANNUAL REVIEW OF PROGRESS

Each fall, the EL facilitator, counselors, and administration at each site collect and review State Assessment results, current CELDT results, other assessment data, and grades for all English Learners to determine growth. Results are recorded on appropriate Progress form and parents are notified. (See Ch. 2) At 3rd grade and above, data is reviewed also to discern students who meet reclassification criteria.

When a student scores Early Advanced or Advanced overall on the annual CELDT (with no subtest scores below intermediate) he or she is considered for reclassification. Those students with all subtest scores at Advanced or Early Advanced are automatically considered for reclassification. Reclassification for those students with a score of Intermediate on any of the subtests will be decided in an RLT. If the student's academic performance is equal to that of an English proficient student of the same age, class grades in content areas show proficiency, district benchmarks show proficiency, and teachers are in agreement that reclassification is a suitable option, the process begins.

RECLASSIFICATION PROCESS

The reclassification form is completed by the site EL Facilitator. The form is then signed by the student, parent, site Principal, and EL teacher or facilitator. This may be done in a conference which includes all concerned parties. Once the form is signed, the student's Language Proficiency is changed to "R" on AERIES at the site and a copy of the reclassification form is sent to the District Office to be signed by the district EL Coordinator and for entry into AERIES at that level. Once returned, the original copy of the form is filed in the student's green EL folder in his or her cum folder. The cumulative folder is also visibly marked R-FEP.

All parties must agree that any deficits are due to factors unrelated to English Language proficiency.

Student's performance comparable to English speaking students

RECLASSIFICATION STANDARDS

Each English Learner who meets the established multiple reclassification criteria is reclassified as Fluent English Proficient (R-FEP). Each former English learner who has been redesignated as R-FEP has demonstrated English language proficiency comparable to that of the average native English speaker and can participate equally with them in the school's instructional program.

In accordance with state and federal requirements, Marysville Joint Unified School District has stipulated reclassification standards which are consistent with the skill level required to be considered proficient at the level of an average native English speaker. The reclassification process involves the parent, student, teachers, the site EL Coordinator and the site administrator. This process is designed to ascertain whether a student has the language proficiency to achieve academic success in the school's regular instructional program.

Reclassification standards are as listed below:

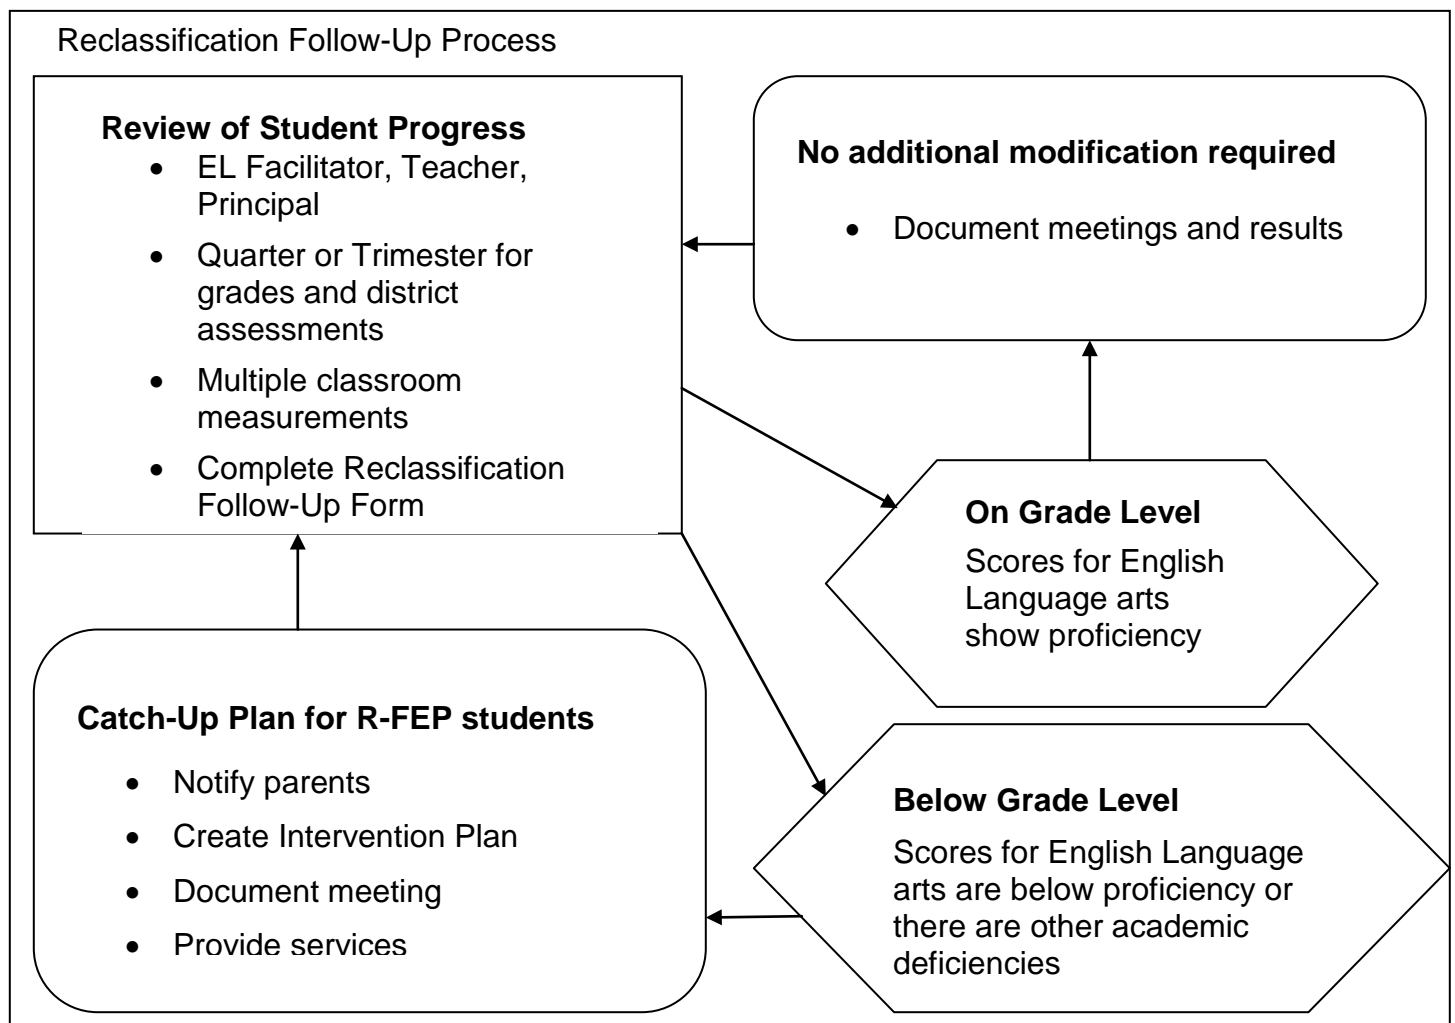

Criteria Topic	Standard Criteria
1. Academic grade level	1. Students will not be redesignated before the beginning of third grade.
2. English language proficiency as measured by the California English Language Proficiency Test (CELDT).	2. CELDT overall proficiency of Advanced or Early Advanced. Must be Intermediate or above in all subtests: Listening, Speaking, Reading, And Writing.
3. Academic performance in English Language Arts	3. Student performance comparable to that of an English speaking student.
4. School Performance	4. Passing grades on most recent report card <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Elementary: A "2" on standards based report card in core academic subjects. • Secondary: Earning a "C" or higher in English and a 2.0 GPA • • Any deficits are unrelated to English proficiency.
5. Teacher's Recommendation	5. Teacher's evaluation of progress and ability to participate fully in non-ELD program.
6. Parents Opinion and Consultation	6. Parents have the opportunity to review the student's performance and provide input on the reclassification decision prior to or during the school's review. Parent signature on the reclassification form is required.

RECLASSIFICATION FOLLOW-UP

Reclassified students will be monitored for two years following reclassification. The site EL Specialist/Facilitator will annually monitor all State assessment scores, if applicable. Grades in the core subjects (English and Math for elementary; English, Math, Science, and Social Science for secondary) and performance on district benchmark assessments will be monitored at the end of each grading period (trimester or quarter) to ensure continued success. The reclassification follow-up form will be used to summarize each student's performance. The Reclassification Accountability Roster (Elementary or Secondary version, as appropriate) will be used to chart all students in need of follow-up. An intervention plan will be indicated if the student's scores drop below reclassification levels.

Intervention services may include, but are not limited to:

- Tutoring (before, during, or after the regular school day)
- Specialized reading instruction
- English Language Development instruction
- Re-entry into a Sheltered English Immersion class
- Participation in strategic or intensive interventions offered by the school
- Summer School

Staffing
And Professional Development

State and Federal Requirements

V – EL 15: Teacher EL Authorization

- Teachers assigned to provide English language development or access to core curriculum instruction for English learners are appropriately authorized or are actively in training for an appropriate EL authorization.

V – EL 16: Professional Development

- The LEA provides high-quality professional development to classroom teachers, principals, administrators, and other school or community-based personnel.

STAFFING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

ADEQUATE AND QUALIFIED STAFF

Marysville Joint Unified School District is committed to hiring qualified teachers for English learners. In compliance with State and Federal regulations, the District ensures that all teaching personnel whose assignment includes English learners holds appropriate certification to provide necessary instructional services to English learners.

In the spring of each school year, following the R-30 annual Language Census, each school is informed as to numbers of qualified teachers needed to fully implement all elements of the English Language Development program at the school, including ELD, Content Instruction with SDAIE Strategies, and primary language instruction.

A proposed staffing plan for each school will be reviewed by District personnel each spring, and vacancies will be posted as necessary, listing required California Teaching Credentialing Commission (CTCC) authorizations to implement instruction for English learners.

When teaching positions occur which require BCLAD/CLAD certification, MJUSD will actively recruit and hire teachers who are fully certified to fill such positions and meet English learner needs at the site. If fully credentialed teachers with BLCAD or CLAD certifications are not available, teachers in training for these special certifications may fill the positions as long as they complete all requirements within two years. Newly hired teachers are required to sign a commitment letter stating their intention to fulfill this requirement within the allotted time period.

Veteran teachers without proper certification have been offered the necessary training by the district to become fully qualified (AB2913, SB395, or CTEL Preparation).

The English Learner Staffing Plan Annual Report is completed as part of the Consolidated Application each October to monitor district progress toward full certification of all teachers working with English learners. The Annual Report documents numbers of fully certified teachers and the numbers in training, as well as results of hiring and staff training efforts each year.

Recruitment of Bilingual Paraprofessionals

MJUSD employs many qualified bilingual paraprofessionals. These staff members are encouraged to participate in a variety of trainings designed to help them improve their skills in working with English learners. They are strongly encouraged to pursue a teaching credential.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

It is critical that we continue to develop as educators if we are to meet the academic and cultural needs of our English learner students as future citizens and leaders of our nation. Extensive opportunities for professional growth in the area of educating English learners are available in MJUSD each year for administrators, teachers, instructional aides, and other school site and district office staff. These trainings are directly related to services for English learners and focus on the diversity and instructional needs of our English learners.

Staff development to ensure understanding of all elements of the district's program for English learners is provided to all administrators at regularly scheduled meetings. In addition, training and coaching on using ELD standards to evaluate teacher performance are also offered.

Ongoing workshops and coaching for teachers on best practices in ELD classrooms are offered, and teachers and instructional aides have attended conferences such as CABE, TESOL, and CATESOL, all of which specifically target the academic and social needs of English Learners.

Important topics for professional development include, but are not limited to:

- EL curriculum training
- Classroom management for EL curriculum
- Cooperative learning strategies
- Classroom planning
- Cross-cultural understanding
- ELD Standards, strategies, and pedagogy
- Structured English Immersion requirements and strategies
- Serving EL students in the English Language Mainstream classroom
- Primary language instruction and support
- SDAIE
- Master Plan policies
- Preparation for and/or fulfilling the requirements for proper certification to teach English Learners
- Parent outreach to ensure their informed consent and understanding of the educational options for their children, including graduation requirements

Systematic and Sustained

MJUSD realizes that for professional development to be most effective, it needs to be both thoughtfully embarked upon and conscientiously followed up. District teachers are surveyed as to felt needs and assessment data are analyzed to discover gaps; opportunities for professional growth are planned from there.

Recent professional development opportunities include:

- Northern California Writing Project
- Curriculum trainings offered by publishers of adopted texts, such as Hampton Brown's High Point or Into English.
- District Best Practice workshops
- Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment (BTSA)
- SB 472 for math, English, and English learners
- School site training with teachers, Parent Liaisons, and ELAC members
- GLAD (Guided Language Acquisition Development)
- Data management system
- Data analysis

Follow-up to sustain what happens in training happens in various ways, all of which rely heavily on collaboration.

The following are examples these collaborative extensions:

- Grade level data analysis, planning, and articulation
- Articulation across grade levels and school levels (elementary to middle school, middle school to high school)
- Articulation and collaboration across curricular areas at the secondary level.
- Peer observations
- Student leadership and reflection on progress and academic needs.
- Peer “Best Practices” workshops

It is the intention of MJUSD to support in any way possible the efficient and effective academic, social and cross-cultural development of all of our students. We recognize the special needs of English learners and strive to provide the best possible situation for their growth and development.

- A LEA with 51 or more English learners has a functioning DELAC or a subcommittee of an existing district committee in which at least 51 percent of the members are parents (not employed by the district) of English learners.

II – EL 07: Translations Notices, Reports, Statements, Records

- The LEA provides parents with information on school and parent activities in a format and, to the extent, practicable, in a language the parents can understand.

Parent and Community Involvement

The Board of Education recognizes that parents/guardians are their children's first and most influential teachers and that sustained parent involvement in the education of their children contributes greatly to student achievement and a positive school environment. The Superintendent or designee shall work with staff and parents/guardians to develop meaningful opportunities at all grade levels for parents/guardians to be involved in district and school activities; advisory, decision-making, and advocacy roles; and activities to support learning at home.

Parent Engagement

The District office makes every effort in encouraging parents to be involved, informed, and advised about the educational services provided to the students.

Communication

General Information

At the beginning of each school year, the district mails home to parents/guardians, an Annual Notification to Parents in which the district's annual measurable achievement objectives are provided. In addition, all school sites provide the same information to parents/guardians regarding each school site specifically. Any site that is in Program Improvement sends additional information to parents/guardians regarding information on School Choice and Supplemental Educational Services (SES). These notices are translated into required languages.

Notices of meetings and reports on school and district progress are sent home throughout the year. When 15% or more of a site's student population speak the same language, the school will provide written translation of all school information in that language.

As much as possible, all parents who are limited English speakers will be provided with oral translation in their primary language. In MJUSD, communications are translated into both Spanish and Hmong. These include, but are not limited to:

- Student Accountability Report Card (February)
- Williams Notifications
- Parent/Student Handbooks
- Parent Advisory Committee (Held Monthly)
- English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC)
- District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC)
- School Board meetings (Dates, locations, agendas and minutes located on the District Web site)

Translation is available for all meetings, conferences, SSTs, suspension and expulsion hearings, and all due process actions at the district level.

Staying Involved

The district also informs the parents how they can be involved in the education of their children and be active participants in assisting their children. The district office has provided resources for the sites in assisting the school administration, teachers, and support staff to assist parents in being actively involved in their student's academic career. Listed here are some examples of the resources that may be available. This list is not exhaustive.

1. Attain English proficiency.
2. Achieve at high levels in core academic subjects.
3. Meet challenging state academic standards expected of all students.
(20 USC 7012[e][1])
4. Meet the graduation requirements
5. Outreach consultants at sites
6. High School counselors

It is the goal of MJUSD to have the parents of all EL students participate meaningfully in the education of their child. The following types of activities may be carried out at the site or district level to help us reach that goal.

- Parent meetings will be held with respect to times and locations that are convenient for the parents. Childcare and refreshments should be provided.
- School sites may assign a staff member to provide parent support at the site or may employ a parent liaison.
- Training should be provided on parental rights, and parents should be encouraged to exercise those rights.
- Training may be provided on how parents can meaningfully participate at their child's school, and the site should provide opportunities for that volunteerism.
- School advocacy training may be offered, including informational sessions on school operations and who to go to for assistance related to problems or concerns.
- The district will provide ongoing staff development to school staffs on how best to work with parents, including communication skills and cultural sensitivity.

Sites will report to the district on parent activities implemented during the year, as well as parent involvement in a set of activities to be defined in a standardized way across sites. A parent participation form will be completed each spring and submitted to the district. Data from these forms will then be aggregated to develop a picture of parent involvement in the district as a whole.

Further and sustained involvement is a goal area that will continue to require specific effort to develop benchmarks and indicators. Educational Services will work with the DELAC and ELAC members to develop specific benchmarks, instruments, and a calendar of procedures during each school year. This will be reviewed and refined and submitted to the Educational Services office for approval and implementation the following school year.

2. Selection of ELAC members
 - a. Year one
 - 1) Election of Parents – Send a letter to all parents (not just parents of EL students) informing them of the school's intent to form the ELAC. State what the purpose of the ELAC is and encourage parents who are interested in being a member and/or learning more about the duties of the ELAC to attend a meeting at the school site. Nominations would be taken at this meeting for ELAC parent members and elections held at that time.
 - 2) Selection of Other Members - Inform all staff (certificated and classified) of the school's intent to select members for the ELAC. Other members may be the principal, teacher(s), bilingual instructional assistants, clerical, etc.

b. Year Two

If the school ELAC membership is complete (parents and staff) from year one, there will be no need to amend the ELAC membership. If the membership is not complete, follow the procedure listed below.

1) Election of Parents – if the school site does not have a complete ELAC parent membership at the beginning of year two, the school site shall send a letter in the appropriate languages to all parents (not just parents of EL students) informing them of the school's intent to fill the vacant parent position(s). Conduct the parent election to fill vacant position(s) at the first ELAC meeting in year two.

2) Selection of Other Members – If other members of ELAC need to be replaced at the beginning of year two, send a letter to all staff members informing them of the school's intent to fill the vacant position(s). The ELAC staff members should be selected prior to the first ELAC meeting.

c. Replacement During the Year

If a committee member must be replaced during the school year, the alternate will fill the vacancy or the president shall appoint someone to the position for the remainder of the year. Vacant positions shall be re-elected or selected each fall

3. Selection of DELAC representatives

At the first ELAC meeting in year one, the members must elect one or two parents of EL Students to represent them at the District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC). The term shall be for two years. An election for a new DELAC representative(s) is held at the first meeting of year two only if the school's representative(s) from year one is no longer available to serve.

4. Additional responsibilities of site EL Coordinator/Principal:

It is the responsibility of the site EL Coordinator and/or Principal to collect the following information for each meeting or training provided to ELAC parents. He/she needs to keep original records for the school and send a copy to the District Language Learner Coordinator's office in a prompt manner:

- a. A list of elected members, which identifies all members, including parents of EL learners.
- b. A list of ELAC elected officers, including the identification of DELAC representatives.
- c. Copies of parental notification letters of scheduled ELAC meetings, elections and membership opportunities, and other planned events.
- d. Copies of ELAC meeting minutes, agendas, and sign-in sheets. The minutes should verify that members were trained and were advised in legally required areas.
- e. Copy of materials used to train members to carry out legal ELAC responsibilities and other hand-outs given during the meetings.
- f. If the documents are translated into other languages, a copy of each should be sent to the district office.

District English Learners Advisory Committee

Legal Requirements

Whenever there are 51 or more EL students in a district, there shall be a functioning District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC) or subcommittee of an existing district committee that has met all of the following:

1. Has had the opportunity to advise the District and the board regarding:
 - a. A timetable for and development of a Master Plan for English Learners.
 - b. A district-wide needs assessment on a school-by-school basis.

 - d. Administration of the language census (R30-LC).
 - e. The review and comment of the written notification of initial enrollment/placement.
2. Has a majority membership of parents of EL students not employed by the District. (In the event an existing committee is used for these purposes, the membership of parents of EL students shall be made up of at least the same percentage as that of the EL students in the District.)
3. Has received training materials and training developed in consultation with the committee and appropriate training to assist parent members in carrying out their responsibilities.

Selection of Representatives

At the first English Learner Advisory Committee (ELAC) meeting in year one, the members must elect two parents of EL students to represent them at the district level, on the District English Learner Advisory Committee (DELAC). The representatives serve for two years. An election for a new DELAC representative is held at the first meeting in year two only if the school's representative from year one is no longer available to serve on the DELAC.

The representatives will be responsible to attend all DELAC meetings and present the information received at the DELAC meetings at the school level ELAC. The DELAC will meet at least four times during the school year.

Schools must complete the DELAC representative form after the first ELAC meeting in year one and submit it to the English Learner Coordinator.

Training on Legal Areas of Responsibility

The District will provide all the DELAC members:

1. Appropriate training, materials, and information to assist each member to carry out his/her responsibilities and any required duties.
2. DELAC members shall assist the District to plan the training-such as childcare, translating services, refreshments, and any other reasonable expenses.

Chapter SIX

Evaluation
and
Accountability

State and Federal Requirements

IV – EL 13: EL Program Evaluation

- The LEA develops and implements a process and criteria to determine the effectiveness of programs for English learners.

EVALUATION and ACCOUNTABILITY

Our primary goal is to provide instructional programs that are effective in helping our English Learners acquire the literacy skills and the content knowledge that are taught in our standards-based curriculum, while making progress at closing any achievement gap which might prevent them from keeping up with their native English speaking peers. In order to catch up academically, English Learners must progress at a rate which exceeds that of the native English speakers, who are also progressing. Research shows that they must achieve 13 to 15 months of learning for every 10 months of an academic school year (Mora).

Monitoring the progress of our English Learners is a complex task, which includes analysis of State Academic testing data, language testing (CELDT) data, district benchmark assessments, writing rubrics, and other classroom measures of achievement. It is critical that we monitor progress of individual students as well as specified cohorts of students to ascertain that progress is being made. These cohorts could be as small as a classroom or a grade level at a specific school or as large as the English Learner population within the entire district.

It is thus clear that accountability for EL instructional programs and accountability to English Learners must be ensured by district-wide sharing of responsibility. Accountability must be shared by all parties, including the School Board, the District Superintendents, School Site Principals, EL Facilitators, Teachers, Parents, Paraprofessionals and Students. Accountability must be seen as a daily responsibility.

Factors which must be monitored and evaluated include but are not limited to the following:

- Implementation of district-wide goals and the Master Plan
- District and school data
- Plans, programs, modifications and timelines for implementation of changes.
- Credentials of personnel
- Progress of staff in obtaining appropriate authorizations (CLAD, BCLAD)
- Proper placement of EL staff.
- Professional Development of staff (Administrator, teachers, paraprofessionals).
- Selection of materials used for delivery of core curriculum to EL Students
- ELD Procedures at school sites
- Assessments
- ELAC and DELAC parent meetings
- All standardized test data
- Classroom data
- Student placement
- Student records
- School site EL Plan
- Legal requirements
- Implementation and modification of program strategies for maximum effectiveness
- CELDT Testing
- Informing parents of student progress, and/or lack thereof.

Monitoring Program Implementation and Effectiveness

Our monitoring process:

1. Establishes high expectations for all students and provides a framework for ensuring that student and organizational outcomes are achieved;
2. Promotes full involvement of all stakeholders (administrators, teachers, parents, students) in all phases of planning, implementation, and evaluation activities;
3. Provides for high levels of coordination between district-level and site-level improvement efforts;
4. Ensures that program evaluation is an integral part of school improvement initiatives and activities.

Evaluation Design

The district will conduct an annual evaluation of programs and services for English Language Learners. The programs described in earlier sections are structured around six goals. The evaluation activities will focus on the questions listed in the following table that matches goals with evaluation questions. Each year these evaluation criteria will be reviewed, and may be revised in response to program changes and changes in the needs of ELs.

The state criteria for AMAO 2 (attaining English-language proficiency) on the CELDT are: attain the English proficient level (overall level 4 or 5 with all subskills 3 or higher) after four years or if at the intermediate level or above. Targets for each AMAO steadily increase from 2003 to 2013 (AMAO1: 51% to 64%; AMAO 2: 30% to 46%)

Specific Goals and Measures

Measures for Monitoring Goal 1:

- 1. Principal's Assurances Checklist (EL Form #27)
- 2. Site monitoring checklists (ELD, SDAIE, etc.) (EL Forms #28-#29)

Goal 1:

Program Implementation as Described in the Master Plan for English Learners

School Principals are responsible for the daily, site-level implementation of the Master Plan for English Language Learners. Throughout the academic school year, principals complete sections of the Principal's Assurances Checklist (EL Form #28) for EL Program Services and submit it to Educational Services Department according to the timeline indicated on the checklist. This facilitates ongoing communication between the district office and the school sites and assists in the monitoring of consistent implementation of this Master Plan throughout the school district. The Superintendent reviews all Principal's Assurances checklists at the end of the academic year.

The district has begun the very ambitious project of refining the process whereby implementation of appropriate programs for English Learners can be much more adequately monitored and assessed.

Proposed Monitoring of EL Master Plan Implementation

District and site staff will periodically monitor implementation of all EL programs. The primary goal of the monitoring is to ensure that every school in the district has optimally effective and compliant programs for English Learners. This monitoring will consist of three major aspects:

1. Document Reviews. All schools will conduct annual monitoring by means of review of key files and documents. District-level EL Specialists will assist site EL Coordinators with these reviews. The district hopes to develop a Document Review Calendar and Checklist for the annual cycle of document reviews. Document reviews will be scheduled in all schools each year on a calendar to be announced prior to the start of each school year.

2. In depth reviews (district-facilitated self-reviews) will be conducted on a four-year rotating cycle. A chart identifying Cohorts A, B and C will be developed. A third of all district schools serving English Learners will be reviewed each year. In the fourth year, selected schools from cohorts A, B, or C will be reviewed, based on needs identified in prior reviews. The reviews will include a documentation check, teacher and parent interviews, and visits to selected classrooms. They will be conducted by teams to include district staff, the principal and EL Coordinator from the site being reviewed, and a selected administrator and EL Coordinator from another school. These in-depth reviews will result in status reports that will provide the basis for individual site improvement work

3. Ongoing coaching and staff development support. District staff from Educational Services will help organize site staff development and assist with classroom coaching. They will assist with the document reviews and have lead responsibility for organizing in-depth reviews and any needed follow-up. They typically will visit assigned schools at least twice monthly and will have weekly contact with schools found to have significant difficulties in implementing EL programs.

Goal 2: Increase English Language Proficiency

Measure for Monitoring Goal 2:

1. Annual EL Monitoring (EL forms 30, 31)

AMAO1 defines progress as follows:

- Students at Beginning, Early Intermediate, and Intermediate overall levels are expected to gain one level each year.
- Students at Early Advanced or Advanced level are expected to bring all sub-skills up to Intermediate level.
- Students at English Proficient level are expected to maintain that level (overall and all sub-skills).

ELs expected to reach the English proficient level (AMAO 2) includes the following (based on prior year CELDT):

- All Intermediate students
- Early Advanced & Advanced students who were not English proficient in prior year
- Beginning & Early Intermediate students who are in US schools for more than 4 years
- Credit is given for Beginning & Early Intermediate students in US schools less than 4 years who reach English proficiency

Results of the annual CELDT will be analyzed between February and April.

An analysis of academic ELD progress (AMAO1) and English language proficiency attainment (AMAO 2) will be conducted by district, school, language group and program. District level analyses will help identify professional development priorities.

During the 2008-2009 school year, MJUSD will review and measure growth on CELDT. The analysis will focus on the following cohorts:

- Students in U.S. schools 1-3 years
- Students in U.S. schools 4-5 years
- Students in U.S. schools more than five years

Additionally, reports will be compiled indicating which ELs have missed AMAO 1 (progress) and which ELs from the AMAO 2 cohort did not attain English language proficiency. These will be used for site-level planning and instructional changes.

In order to realize the goal of English Language proficiency, we must design and implement programs which are based on sound theoretical and researched models. We then assess the progress of students to determine the effectiveness of the programs and the sustained academic gains of the students in the three key areas of language, literacy and content. Some of the factors which have proven to be necessary for English Learners' intellectual and social development are as follows:

- Supportive school-wide environment
- Fostering a positive identity with both the students' home culture and their acquired American culture.
- Special attention to linguistic factors in student academic achievement
- Theme based instruction
- Fully informing parents about the goals and objectives of the programs and regular communication with them about their children's progress.
- A balanced curriculum that incorporates both basic and higher-order thinking skills, keeping in mind the developmental progression of language and literacy.
- Helping students discern English grammar and syntax through direct instruction as well as self-directed activities.

Goal 3: Achievement of Academic Success

Measure for Monitoring Goal 3:

1. Annual EL Monitoring (EL forms 30, 31)

Academic achievement of English learners can be measured by the following benchmarks:

- Achievement of passing grades in core academic courses.
- Earning a cumulative grade point average that is equivalent to the GPAs of native English Speakers.
- Achievement of a graduation rate that is equivalent to native English speakers.
- Passage of the California High School Exit Exam at a rate that is equivalent to that of native English speakers.
- Students seeking post-secondary educational options at a rate that is equivalent to that of native English speakers.

Academic progress will be supported and indicated during the year by:

- District standards-based benchmark assessments in English language arts and mathematics
- State testing data in English Language Arts and Mathematics will be analyzed each fall. District summary reports will be prepared. In addition, school-level reports identifying students who have not made progress, along with such relevant additional data as time-in-district, and CELDT overall as well as sub skill levels, will be prepared for each school site. The analyses will include cross-sectional profiles of performance by CELDT level as well as disaggregation of data by school, grade level and language group.

- Standard strand analyses of State testing data will be performed at the district level in order to identify district wide priority areas for professional development (e.g., strengthening students' reading comprehension through instructional read-alouds & questioning strategies).
- Reclassification data are collected throughout the spring semester. District staff will review & analyze performance on criteria need for reclassification for all ELs. In addition, staff will review and analyze academic achievement data for former ELs. In both instances, data will be disaggregated by number of years in the district, program placement, initial CELDT level, and other relevant variables.
- CAHSEE scores will be analyzed each spring or fall by district personnel and an analysis made available to the schools.
- Data on the other indicators related to high school success will be collected by high school staff and reported to the district, using table formats that are standardized across schools. Analyses will be completed in the fall of each year.

Goal 4: Indicators of Risk for School Failure

School site personnel will compile the data on suspensions, expulsions, other disciplinary actions and retentions, and report it to the district by the end of the school year, using table formats that are standardized across schools.

A methodology for analyzing dropouts will be developed that will mirror the state's dropout reporting paradigm used for the No Child Left Behind reports. Dropout data are disaggregated by language classification, grade level, and other relevant factors.

Goal 5: Parent Engagement

This goal area will require a specific effort to develop benchmarks and indicators. The Educational Services and EL Departments will work with the DELAC and ELACs to develop specific benchmarks, instruments, and a calendar of procedures. This will be reviewed and refined for implementation the following school year.

Sites will report to the district on parent activities implemented during the year, as well as parent involvement in a set of activities to be defined in a standardized way across sites. A parent participation form will be completed each spring and submitted to the district. Data from these forms will then be aggregated to develop a picture of parent involvement in the district as a whole.

Goal 6: Multicultural Proficiency

This goal area will require a specific effort to develop benchmarks and indicators. The Educational Services and EL Departments will work with sites and ELACs to ascertain professional development needs and to develop specific benchmarks, instruments, and a calendar of procedures. This will be reviewed and refined and submitted for implementation the following school year

Using Program Effectiveness Information to Improve Implementation and Modify the Program

The evaluation data gathered and the analyses performed provide a rich source of information on program implementation and outcomes. The data will be used at both: the district and the site levels.

Site Level Use of Information

The self-review materials will assist sites to determine strengths and areas of need in their programs and make adjustments accordingly. Site level reports identifying missing progress and proficiency goals will be provided in order to assist school staff in identifying students in need of greater support. Individual teachers and grade level teams (departments at the secondary level) will use the EL Program and SDAIE checklists (EL Forms 28, 29) to do self-assessments on program implementation.

“Learning walks” conducted by administrators will provide an additional perspective on classroom implementation of recommended instructional practices. After gathering and discussing the checklist information, each site will develop an action plan for professional development that establishes needs, long-term goals and types of training experiences that are needed to improve instruction. The site plan for professional development should be clearly articulated with the district plan for professional development with prioritization and support. Annual improvement objectives and timelines will also be established. This information will be included in the school’s Single Plan for Student Achievement.

The site will also be able to compare student outcomes at the site level to the district goals for EL students, and use this information to plan for improved implementation of the EL programs.

District Level Use of Information

At the district level, the annual analyses of student outcomes will determine the level of effectiveness of EL programs. Putting outcome data together with the site self reviews will enable district staff to identify areas of strength and target areas in need of improvement on a district-wide basis. This will provide a foundation for professional development planning and program improvement planning each year.

Evaluation Goals

While MJUSD's EL Master Plan uses our Board Goals and Objectives as underpinnings for our work with ELs, the EL Master Plan's evaluation goals will guide us to optimal results for our students:

Evaluation Goal 1: Implementation

EL programs are fully implemented as described in the Master Plan for English Learners

Evaluation Goal 2: English Proficiency

ELs will make steady progress in developing academic English, and attain academic English language proficiency as efficiently and effectively as possible.

Evaluation Goal 3: Academic Progress

ELs will make steady progress in core academic subjects.
ELs in our district five years or longer will meet grade-level standards in core academic subjects.

Evaluation Goal 4: Decrease Risk of Failure

Rates for ELs and RFEPs in categories indicating risk for school failure are no greater than those for English Only students.

Evaluation Goal 5: Parent Engagement

Parents of ELs and RFEPs participate meaningfully in their children's education.

Evaluation Goal 6: Multicultural Proficiency

ELs and RFEPs will develop multicultural proficiency.
Our hope is that this plan will surpass expectations of support for teachers, administrators, parents, and especially our students.
This plan will serve as the basis for our work,
a work that is inclusive of all learners and needs.

Chapter SEVEN

Funding
and Resources

State and Federal Requirements

III – EL 09: Adequate General Funding for English Learners

- Adequate general fund resources are used to provide each English learner with learning opportunities in an appropriate program, including English language development, and the rest of the core curriculum. The provision of such services is not contingent on the receipt of state or federal categorical aid funds.

III – EL 10: Supplement, Not Supplant

- Beginning with the fiscal year 2009-2010, in alignment with the federal supplement, not supplant requirement, Title III funds must not be used to meet state requirements for translations.

Funding and Resources

Funds are allocated following the funding mandates prescribed by the Education Code, state regulations and district policies. Categorical funds are used to supplement the core educational program and not to supplant general fund monies. The core program is supported by the general fund. Expenditures are audited annually by the district's Business Office and by external auditors.

The following process is used to develop plans for program operations and improvement, and the consequent allocation of funds.

Figure A provides descriptions of major funding sources, identifies students to be served by that source, and examples of expenditures that are not appropriate. It gives examples of allowable expenditures that can supplement work in English Language Arts, Math, ELD, and other content areas, capacity building and professional development, school climate, parent engagement, and family support.

1. The School Board approves the district Superintendent's Goals and Objectives. This is a plan to meet the needs of all students.
2. The Superintendent's Cabinet identifies and prioritizes needs, based on the Superintendent's Goals and Objectives and data analysis, and allocates funds and other resources to support those needs.

3. The Executive Director of Educational Services and the Director of Categorical Programs allocates funds based on the Consolidated Application, meets with district Area Administrators and school Principals to ensure compliance, presents school and district plans to the Board for approval, and monitors expenditures throughout the year.

4. The Principal coordinates development of the school level plan and prioritization of needs based on data, meets with the School Site Council and ELAC groups before they approve the school plan and budget. The Principal assures that parents and staff are informed about funding and the site plan.

5. Site and District Advisory Committees take the following roles:

- a. The School Site Council provides input regarding the development and/or revision of the site plan and approves the school level plan;
- b. ELAC members advise and give input on the school level plan and school budget.
- c. DELAC gives input on the district level plan.

Funding and Resources:
General Fund Resources
Other Supplemental Funds
Additional EL Support Programs
Community Programs

General Fund Resources

The district uses the General Fund to provide the base program for all students. This includes core curricular materials, instructional supplies, teachers' salaries and other district services (for example, transportation, library, Special Education, food, health, and counseling) as well as support systems for monitoring program implementation and student progress, and for program evaluation. Core materials in Language Arts and Mathematics provide Universal Access supplements to help ensure that English Learners have access to the core curriculum. The base program also includes District adopted ELD program materials. The district provides primary language instructional materials for students enrolled in a bilingual alternative program.

Categorical Funds

Categorical funds are used to supplement the base program. They are integrated with other supplemental funding sources through the School Based Coordinated Program (SBCP). These funds are used for supplemental services such as:

- Employment of supplemental teachers;
- Para-educators;
- Purchase of supplemental teaching materials;
- In-service training for teachers and Para-educators to develop instructional skills
- Support for parent involvement activities
- Parent training
- Translation services
- Other reasonable expenses related to the program for English Learners.

Services provided through categorical funds are designed to ensure that English Learners develop full proficiency in English as rapidly and effectively as possible, and to ensure that they recoup any academic deficits that may have developed in other area of the core curriculum as a result of language barriers. Each site receives an annual entitlement of categorical funds, based on their number of identified English Learners, to purchase supplemental instructional materials and other, site-determined purposes.

Other Supplemental Funds

Title I, Part A.

School-wide programs under Title I, Part A permit a school to use funds from Title I to raise achievement for all students and improve the entire educational program of the school. School-wide programs are not required to identify particular children as eligible for services. Such schools can use their Title I funds in a flexible manner, as long as they engage in reform strategies that increase the amount and quality of learning and help provide a high-quality curriculum for all children according to a comprehensive plan to help students meet the state's challenging standards.

Title II

The purpose of the program is to increase academic achievement by improving teacher and principal quality. This program is carried out by: increasing the number of highly qualified teachers in classrooms; increasing the number of highly qualified principals and assistant principals in schools; and increasing the effectiveness of teachers and principals by holding LEAs and schools accountable for improvements in student academic achievement.

Title III

The federal Title III program provides funds for supplementary programs and services for English Learners. Required activities include providing instruction and instructional support services related to English language development and academic progress in the core curriculum in a manner that allows English Learners to meet grade level and graduation requirements. Programs must provide staff development opportunities to school staff assigned to the English Learners. Title III funds may also be used for a variety of instructional support, curriculum development, parental involvement, and related EL program activities.

Additional EL Support Programs Before and/or After School Intervention/Enrichment Programs

These programs focus on students whose test scores are far below or below basic, at risk of retention, or are at risk or have not passed the CAHSEE (7-12 only). The emphasis is on ELA and/or Math. Certificated personnel teach the courses before or after school as supplements to the instructional day.

Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment

(BTSA) (Ed code 44259(c) Following the passage of SB2024 (Alper/Mazzoni, Ch. 548, Statutes for 1998). Probationary I and II teachers take part in the BTSA program for induction, in order to obtain their professional clear credential. It also provides professional development for new teachers in all curricular areas.

Board Policies and Administrative Regulations

Relating to English Learners

Board Policy: 6174: Instruction

Education For English Language Learners

The Board of Education intends to provide English language learners with challenging curriculum and instruction that develop proficiency in English as rapidly and effectively as possible in order to assist students in accessing the full educational program and achieving the district's academic standards. The district's program shall be based on sound instructional theory and shall be adequately supported so that English language learners can achieve results at the same academic level as their English-proficient peers in the regular course of study.

The Board encourages staff to exchange information with staff in other districts and the county office of education about programs, options and strategies for English language learners that succeed under various demographic conditions.

(cf. 4112.22 - Staff Teaching Students of Limited English Proficiency)

The Superintendent or designee shall maintain procedures which provide for the identification, assessment and placement of English language learners and for their redesignation based on criteria adopted by the Board and specified in administrative regulations.

To evaluate program effectiveness, the Superintendent or designee shall regularly examine program results, including reports of the English language learners' academic achievement, their progress towards proficiency in English and the progress of students who have been redesignated as fluent English proficient.

(cf. 6190 - Evaluation of the Instructional Program)

Type of Instruction

Students who are English language learners shall be educated through "sheltered English immersion" or "structured English immersion" during a temporary transition period not normally intended to exceed one year. "Nearly all" of the classroom instruction in the district's sheltered English immersion program shall be in English, but with the curriculum and presentation designed for students who are learning the language. (Education Code 305, 306)

The district has defined the term "nearly all" as follows:

All classroom instruction is to be conducted in English except for clarification, explanation, and support as needed.

When an English language learner has acquired a reasonable level of English proficiency as measured by any of the state-designated assessments approved by the California Department of Education or any locally developed assessments and using other criteria developed by the district, he/she shall be transferred from a structured English immersion classroom to an English language mainstream classroom in which the instruction is "overwhelmingly" in English. (Education Code 305; 5 CCR 11301)

An English language learner has acquired a “reasonable level of English proficiency” when he/she has achieved the following:

CELDT level 4, 5 and parent(s)/guardian(s) request.

(cf. 6011 - Academic Standards)

(cf. 6162.5 - Student Assessment)

(cf. 6171 - Title I Programs)

Upon the request of his/her parent/guardian, a student shall be placed in an English language mainstream classroom. (5 CCR 11301)

Parental Exception Waivers

At any time during the school year, the parent/guardian of an English language learner may have his/her child moved into an English language mainstream program.

Parent/guardian requests for waivers from Education Code 305 regarding placement in a sheltered English immersion program shall be granted in accordance with law and administrative regulation.

Any student with a disability shall take the CELDT with those accommodations for testing that the student has regularly used during instruction and classroom assessment as delineated in the student's individualized education program (IEP) or Section 504 plan that are appropriate and necessary to address the student's individual needs. (5 CCR 11516.5)

(cf. 6159 - Individualized Education Program)

(cf. 6164.6 - Identification and Education under Section 504)

The district shall notify parents/guardians of their child's results on the CELDT within 30 calendar days. (5 CCR 11511.5)

(cf. 5145.6 - Parental Notifications)

Within 90 days of initial enrollment, students identified as having limited English proficiency shall be further assessed for primary language proficiency in comprehension, speaking, reading and writing. The Superintendent or designee shall develop criteria for determining student needs on the basis of these assessments. (former Education Code 52164.1, 62002)

Before students are enrolled in a program for English language learners, parents/guardians shall receive information about the program and their opportunities for parental involvement. This information shall include the fact that an individual student's participation in the program is voluntary on the part of the parent/guardian. (Education Code 52173)

Not later than 30 calendar days after the beginning of the school year, each parent/guardian of a student participating in, or identified for participation in, a language instruction program supported by federal Title III funds shall receive notification of the assessment of his/her child's English proficiency. The notice shall include all of the following: (Education Code 440; 20 USC 6312)

1. The reason for the student's classification as English language learner
2. The level of English proficiency
3. A description of the program for English language development instruction, including a description of all of the following:
 - a. The manner in which the program will meet the educational strengths and needs of the student
 - b. The manner in which the program will help the student develop his/her English proficiency and meet age-appropriate academic standards
 - c. The specific exit requirements for the program, the expected rate of transition from the program into classrooms not tailored for English language learner students, and the expected rate of graduation from secondary school if Title I funds are used for students in secondary schools
 - d. Where the student has been identified for special education, the manner in which the program meets the requirements of the student's IEP
4. Information regarding a parent/guardian's option to decline to allow the student to become enrolled in the program or to choose to allow the student to become enrolled in an alternative program
5. Information designed to assist a parent/guardian in selecting among available programs, if more than one program is offered

Parent/guardians also shall be notified of the results of any reassessments. (Education Code 52164.3)

Parental Exception Waivers

At the beginning of each school year, parents/guardians shall be informed of the placement of their children in a structured English immersion program and shall be notified of an opportunity to apply for a parental exception waiver. (Education Code 310; 5 CCR 11309)

A parent/guardian may request that the district waive the requirements of Education Code 305, pertaining to the placement of a student in a structured English immersion program if the one of the following circumstances exists:

1. Students who already know English: The student already possesses good English language skills, as measured by standardized tests of English vocabulary comprehension, reading and writing, in which the student scores at or above the state average for his/her grade level or at or above the fifth-grade average, whichever is lower. (Education Code 311\(a\))
2. Older students: The student is age 10 or older, and it is the informed belief of the principal and educational staff that an alternate course of study would be better suited to the student's rapid acquisition of basic English skills. (Education Code 311\(b\))
3. Students with special needs: The student already has been placed, for a period of not less than 30 calendar days during that school year, in an English language classroom and it is subsequently the informed belief of the school principal and educational staff that the student has special physical, emotional, psychological or educational needs and that an alternate course of educational study would be better suited to the student's overall educational development. (Education Code 311\(c\))

The parent/guardian shall personally visit the school to apply for the waiver. (Education Code 310)

Upon request for a waiver, the Superintendent or designee shall provide to the parents/guardians: (Education Code 310, 311; 5 CCR 11309)

1. A full written description, and a spoken description upon request, of the intent and content of the structured English immersion program, any alternative courses of study and all educational opportunities offered by the district and available to the student, and the educational materials to be used in the different educational program choices
2. For a request for waiver pursuant to Education Code 311\(c\) for students with special needs, notification that the student must be placed for a period of not less than 30 calendar days in an English language classroom and that the Superintendent must approve the waiver pursuant to Board of Education guidelines

Pursuant to Education Code 311\(b\) and 311\(c\), the principal and educational staff may recommend a waiver to a parent/guardian for a student 10 years or older and a student with special needs. Parents/guardians shall be informed in writing of any recommendation for an alternative program made by the principal and staff and shall be given notice of their right to refuse to accept the recommendation. The notice shall include a full description of the recommended alternative program and the educational materials to be used for the alternative program as well as a description of all other programs available to the student. If the parent/guardian elects to request the alternative program recommended by the principal and educational staff, the parent/guardian shall comply with district procedures and requirements otherwise applicable to a parental exception waiver, including Education Code 310. (5 CCR 11309)

When evaluating waiver requests pursuant to Education Code 311\(a\) for students who already know English and other waiver requests for those students for whom standardized assessment data are not available, other equivalent assessment measures may be used. These equivalent measures may include local assessments, local standards and teacher evaluations.

Parental exception waivers pursuant to Education Code 311\(b\) for students 10 years or older shall be granted if it is the informed belief of the principal and educational staff that an alternate course of educational study would be better suited to the student's rapid acquisition of basic English language skills. (Education Code 311)

Parental exception waivers pursuant to Education Code 311\(c\) for students with special needs shall be granted if it is the informed belief of the principal and educational staff that, due to the student's special physical, emotional, psychological or educational needs, an alternate course of educational study would be better suited to the student's overall educational development. (Education Code 311)

Each waiver shall be considered on its individual merits with great deference given to parental preference for student placement.

The principal or designee shall act upon all parental exception waivers within 20 instructional days of submission to the principal. However, parental waiver requests pursuant to Education Code 311\(c\) for students with special needs shall not be acted upon during the 30-day placement in an English language classroom. These waivers shall be acted upon no later than 10 calendar days after the expiration of that 30-day English language classroom placement or within 20 instructional days of submission of the waiver to the principal, whichever is later. (5 CCR 11309)

All parental exception waivers shall be granted unless the principal and educational staff have determined that an alternative program offered at the school would not be better suited for the overall educational development of the student. (5 CCR 11309)

Individual schools in which 20 students or more of a given grade level receive a waiver shall be required to offer such a class; otherwise they must allow the students to transfer to a public school in which such a class is offered. (Education Code 310)

Students wishing to transfer shall be subject to the district's intradistrict and interdistrict attendance policies and administrative regulations. Students wishing to transfer to another district shall also be subject to the receiving district's interdistrict attendance policies and administrative regulations.

(cf. 5116.1 - Intradistrict Open Enrollment)

(cf. 5117 - Interdistrict Attendance)

In cases where a parental exception waiver pursuant to Education Code 311\(b\) or (c) is denied, the parent/guardian shall be informed in writing of the reason(s) for the denial and advised that he/she may appeal the decision to the Board if the Board authorizes such an appeal, or to the court. (5 CCR 11309)

Waiver requests shall be renewed annually by the parent/guardian. (Education Code 310)

Reclassification/Redesignation

The district shall continue to provide additional and appropriate educational services to English language learners for the purposes of overcoming language barriers until the English language learners have: (5 CCR 11302)

1. Demonstrated English language proficiency comparable to that of the district's average native English language speakers
2. Recouped any academic deficits which may have been incurred in other areas of the core curriculum as a result of language barriers

English language learners shall be redesignated as fluent English proficient when they are able to comprehend, speak, read and write English well enough to receive instruction in the regular program and make academic progress at a level substantially equivalent to that of students of the same age or grade whose primary language is English and who are in the regular course of study. (Education Code 52164.6)

The following measures shall be used to determine whether an English language learner shall be reclassified as fluent English proficient: (5 CCR 11303)

1. Assessment of English language proficiency utilizing the CELDT as the primary criterion, and objective assessment of the student's English reading and writing skills
2. Participation of the student's classroom teacher and any other certificated staff with direct responsibility for teaching or placement decisions
3. Parent/guardian opinion and consultation during a redesignation interview

Parents/guardians shall receive notice and a description of the redesignation process, including notice of their right to participate in the process. Parent/guardian participation in the process shall be encouraged.

4. Student performance on a statewide assessment of basic skills in English.
5. Objective data on the student's academic performance in English

The Superintendent or designee shall provide subsequent monitoring and support for redesignated students, including but not limited to monitoring the performance of redesignated students in the core curriculum in comparison with their native-English speaking peers, monitoring the rate of redesignation, and ensuring correct classification and placement.

The Superintendent or designee shall develop a process to monitor the effectiveness of the district's program for English language learners. The district's program shall be modified as needed to help ensure language and academic success for each English language learner.

Advisory Committees

At the district level when there are more than 50 English language learners in the district and at each school with more than 20 English language learners, parent/guardian advisory committees shall be maintained to serve the advisory functions specified in law. (5 CCR 11308)

Parents/guardians of English language learners shall constitute committee membership in at least the same percentage as their children represent of the total number of students in the school. (Education Code 52176)

The district's English language advisory committee shall advise the Board on at least the following tasks: (5 CCR 11308)

1. The development of a district master plan of education programs and services for English learners, taking into consideration the school site plans for English learners
2. The districtwide needs assessment on a school-by-school basis
3. Establishment of a district program, goals and objectives for programs and services for English learners
4. Development of a plan to ensure compliance with applicable teacher or aide requirements
5. Administration of the annual language census
6. Review of and comment on the district's reclassification procedures
7. Review of and comments on the written notification required to be sent to parents/guardians pursuant to 5 CCR 11300-11316

(cf. 0420 - School Plans/Site Councils)

(cf. 1220 - Citizen Advisory Committees)

(cf. 5020 - Parent Rights and Responsibilities)

(cf. 6020 - Parent Involvement)

In order to assist advisory members in carrying out their responsibilities, the Superintendent or designee shall ensure that committee members receive appropriate training and materials. This training shall be planned in full consultation with the members. (5 CCR 11308)

CELDT Frequently Asked Questions

What is the fundamental purpose of the CELDT?

Three purposes for the California English Language Development Test (CELDT) are specified in state law (see Education Code Section 60810 (d)(1-3)), including: 1) identify pupils as limited English proficient, 2) determine the level of English language proficiency (ELP) who are limited English proficient, and 3) assess the progress of limited English proficient students in acquiring the skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing in English. In 2001, the enactment of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act of 2001 mandated states to respond to additional Title III accountability requirements for English learners (ELs). The additional Title III Accountability requirements include the separation of Listening and Speaking scores and the reporting of a Comprehension score (average of Listening and Reading). In 2007, Education Code Section 60810 was amended to authorize early literacy assessment of ELs in kindergarten and grade one commencing with the 2009-10 school year. Question development and field testing will begin in 2008 and early literacy test questions for kindergarten and grade one will be included in the operational test in 2009-10.

What is the construct measured by the CELDT?

The CELDT is a standardized test that assesses the construct of ELP of ELs in grades K-12 in accordance with California Education Code and Title 5 California Code of Regulations. The test contractor, CTB/McGraw-Hill (CTB), in collaboration with the California Department of Education (CDE), ensures through the various stages of test development and administration that the CELDT is a valid and reliable measure of the construct of ELP. The CELDT also provides a comprehension score as required by Title III of the NCLB. For more information, please refer to the technical reports and special studies posted under Resources on the CELDT Technical Documentation Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/techreport.asp>.

Does the CELDT measure academic language?

All CELDT questions are developed based on the English Language Development (ELD) Standards approved by the State Board of Education (SBE) in July 1999. In accordance with the principles of universal access to the language arts curriculum for ELs (Framework for California Public Schools Kindergarten through Grade Twelve, 2007, pp. 273-274) approved by the SBE, the CELDT assesses “basic social conventions, rudimentary classroom vocabulary, and ways to express personal and safety needs” to assess ELP. In addition, a portion of CELDT test questions are developed to assess student performance at the early advanced and advanced proficiency levels and as such appropriately incorporate classroom language. To this end, CELDT test questions engage academic language functions, such explaining, questioning, analyzing, and summarizing.

All CELDT questions and reading passages are reviewed and approved by content experts before they are field tested. These content experts are recruited and selected from among experienced K-12 teachers who work closely with ELs as well as second-language acquisition experts. These reviewers pay careful attention to the alignment of the proposed CELDT questions to the ELD standards. All questions are field tested before they become operational and are used for official CELDT scores.

Item writer training, item development, content review, bias and sensitivity review, test form development, field testing, and operational test administrations are all conducted with the ELD standards as the central organizing structure and are built in accordance with the Standards of Educational and Psychological Testing.

What is done to ensure that the CELDT consistently measures the same construct over time?

One of the hallmarks of the CELDT and California's other state tests is the comparability of scores across administrations. Scale scores are reported for the CELDT because they are directly comparable. The CELDT maintains 70 percent of test questions from year to year with 30 percent new test questions introduced each year to refresh the test and maintain test security. The test contractor's research department is required to conduct very intensive scaling procedures on every CELDT edition.

How did the common scale impact the interpretation of scores?

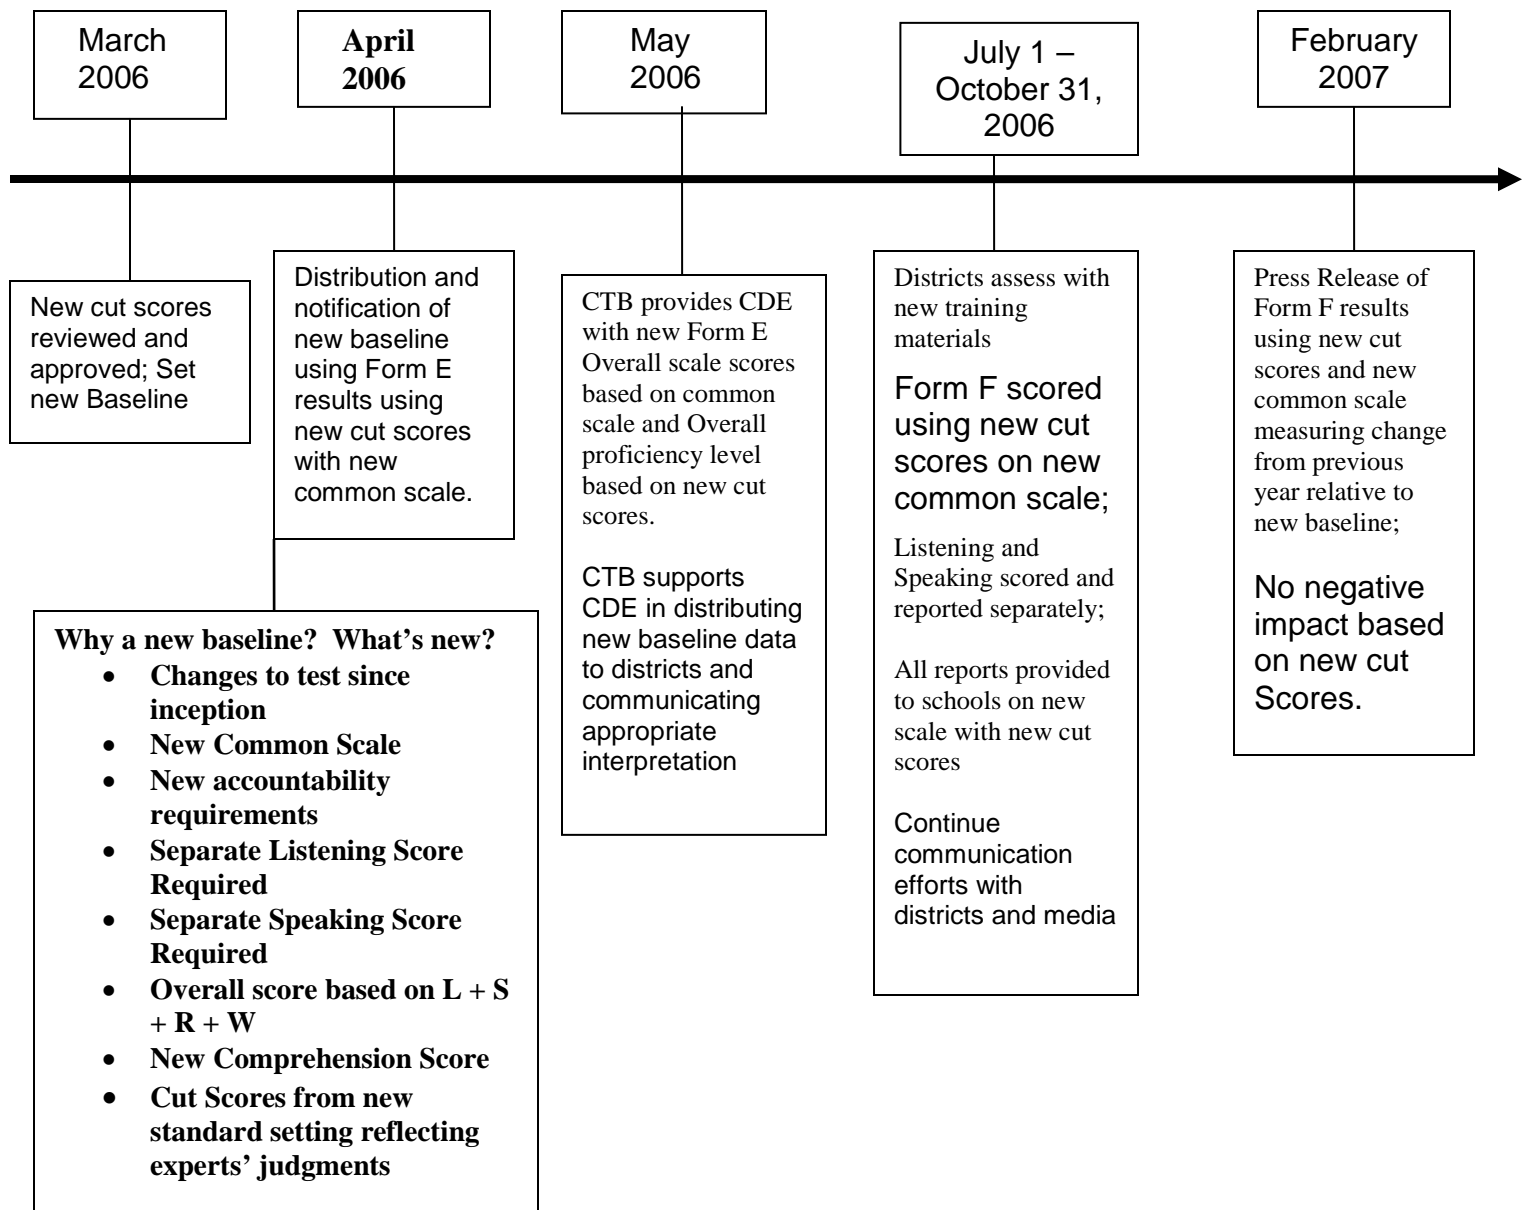

The change to the new common scale in 2006-07 did present the need to convert the scores in 2005-06 from the old to the new scale in order to provide for direct comparison of scores across those two years. Concordance tables were developed by the test contractor and these were made available to districts in order to locally compare 2005-06 to 2006-07. Future forms of the CELDT will be directly comparable to the 2006-07 base, but the CELDT editions prior to 2006 are not comparable to future forms.

How were districts informed about the technical changes to the CELDT in 2006-07? All districts have been informed of the CELDT changes in various ways including numerous presentations to CELDT district coordinators who are designated annually by the district superintendents, focus groups, regular communication through program notes and updates found on the Program Updates and Notes Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/updates.asp>. The Standards and Assessment Division and the CELDT office have given regular presentations to the SBE. Discussions regarding changes to the CELDT have been underway for more than two years now with local educational agencies that administer the CELDT.

The changes to the CELDT began with the Bookmark Standard Setting conducted by CTB in February 2006. Committees composed of ninety-seven experienced educators with expertise in English Language Development and knowledge of the CELDT from across the state convened to recommend cut scores for use with the Form F and subsequent forms of the CELDT. Of the 97 educational experts, 53 percent were teachers, 23 percent administrators, and 24 percent were other education professionals with 25 percent of that group having more than 20 years of experience, 73 percent having a graduate degree, and 89 percent having CLAD or BCLAD authorization. This Web document can be found at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/documents/standardsetting.pdf>.

The CELDT performance level cut score implementation plan to support the new common scale and setting the new baseline for CELDT was presented to the SBE in March 2006 (see Figure 1 from March 2006, SBE Item 11). At that same meeting, the SBE approved the new performance level cut scores and the new common scale for CELDT.

Advantages:

- May 2006 notification gives districts advance information to support smooth transition to new baseline
- Increased consistency in students' proficiency levels from one grade span to the next
- New cut scores better reflect practitioner beliefs of students acquisition of English Language fluency informed by 5 years of CELDT use
- Increases credibility of assessment program
- No significant added costs to program
- Students' proficiency level status is better aligned with their EL classification (fewer students spending years in Early Advanced or Advanced but not reclassified)

How did the technical changes to the CELDT affect the results?

As presented to the SBE in July 2007, Figure 2 provides a bar chart that displays the percent of students who fall into each of the five performance levels based on the 2005-06 (Form E) unconverted results, the 2005-06 converted (Form E) results, and the 2006-07 (Form F) results. The Form E unconverted results are provided only as a reference point to results on the old scale. It is not appropriate to directly compare Form E unconverted results to Form F. The appropriate comparison is Form E converted to Form F results because this comparison is based on the same scale.

How is technical information, such as test equating, disseminated to districts? The test contractor is required to provide a technical report to CDE annually. All past technical reports and special studies are posted under Resources on the CELDT Technical Documentation Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/techreport.asp>. The Standards and Assessment Division distributes CELDT Notes every other month and conducts presentations to district coordinators twice a year (North and South) in which updates are provided about CELDT along with the other state testing programs to all district testing coordinators in California.

What resources are available to assist districts in using CELDT data locally? Under CDE's direction, the test contractor, CTB, conducted 10 workshops across the state in November/December 2007 to assist districts in using CELDT results appropriately. All CELDT district coordinators and the local data analysts were invited to participate in these workshops. Also, the Language Policy and Leadership Office at CDE posts an Information Guide annually on the use of CELDT data for the calculation of Annual Measureable Achievement Objectives (AMAOs) 1 and 2 for Title III accountability. This year's Guide included an explanation of the new targets that were approved by the SBE in September 2007 to "hold districts harmless" for the changes made to the CELDT in 2006-07. This guide can be found as a Web document at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/el/t3/documents/t3infoguide07.doc>.

Does the State have expectations regarding the relationship between performance on the new CELDT and redesignation rates?

The state expects that ELs who meet the CELDT criterion and can “participate effectively in a curriculum designed for pupils of the same age whose native language is English” (Education Code Section 313 (d) (4)) may be eligible for reclassification. However, reclassification is a local decision that is to be based on multiple measures four of which are required by state law (Education Code Section 313(d)). The SBE developed reclassification guidelines to assist districts in applying multiple measures locally. These guidelines are included in Section 5 of the District Assistance Packet located on the CELDT Assistance Packet March 2007 Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/celdtastpkt.asp>.

Table 1 presents the percentage of students by grade span who met the CELDT criterion established by the SBE for possible reclassification in 2006-07. In addition to meeting the CELDT criterion, districts must also consider the other three reclassification criteria in statute (teacher evaluation, parent consultation, and basic performance on the California Standards Test for English-Language Arts). Overall, 29.1 percent of ELs met the CELDT criterion last year. However, the reclassification rate as reported by districts for this same time period was only 9.2 percent. The reclassification rates have been consistently under ten percent since 2001-02 when CELDT was first administered and even for the years prior to its implementation.

Table 1. Percentage of Students Who Met CELDT Criterion for Possible Reclassification by Grade Span

	Form F 2006-07
K-2	20.0%
3-5	27.3%
6-8	37.4%
9-12	34.3%
All Grades	29.1%

At the secondary level, what are the implications for students who are denied access to the core as a result of their failure to be reclassified based on their CELDT scores?

The CELDT is designed to measure students’ language acquisition and ELP and not their performance in academic content areas. Reclassification is a local decision in all cases. Therefore, the CELDT alone should not be a barrier to access to the core if a student is English proficient.

California English Language Development Test

Blueprint Preface

The following blueprints are for the California English Language Development Test (CELDT). The CELDT has three purposes: (1) to identify students who are limited English proficient; (2) to determine the level of English language proficiency of students who are limited English proficient; and (3) to assess the progress of limited English proficient students in acquiring skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing in English. The CELDT is aligned to the English Language Development (ELD) Standards approved by the State Board of Education (SBE) in 1999. The ELD Standards identify five proficiency levels through which English learners progress toward English proficiency: Beginning, Early Intermediate, Intermediate, Early Advanced, and Advanced.

The SBE has established performance level cut scores for all four domains (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) and overall performance on the CELDT. Student CELDT scores are reported as falling into one of five performance levels: beginning, early intermediate, intermediate, early advanced, and advanced. Performance level descriptions are provided on the individual score reports to assist teachers and parents in interpreting each student's CELDT results.

The blueprints are organized by the four grade spans assessed on the CELDT; these are Kindergarten through grade two; grades three through five; grades six through eight; and grades nine through twelve. Each one of these four tests has 99 test questions that assess four language domains (listening, speaking, reading, and writing), except students in kindergarten and grade one currently are assessed only on the listening and speaking domains, which consist of 40 questions each. The ELD standard under each domain reflects a skill that English learners are expected to have mastered at that specified proficiency level.

Pertinent Laws
and
Frequently Asked Questions
Regarding
English Learners in California

LEGAL BASIS FOR FEDERAL AND STATE PROGRAMS FOR ENGLISH LEARNERS

Federal Law

United States Constitution (USC): Fourteenth Amendment -- Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses

No State shall "deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act 42 USC. Section 2000d provided that "no person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin... be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance."

Lau v. Nichols

In Lau v. Nichols (1974) the United States Supreme Court held that San Francisco's failure to provide supplemental English language instruction to 1,800 students of Chinese ancestry violated Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, 42 USC, Section 2000d. The Court stated that those students were thus denied a meaningful opportunity to participate in the public educational program.

Equal Education Opportunities Act: 20 USC, §1703(f)

This statute recognizes the state's role in assuring equal opportunity for national origin minority students. It declares:

No State shall deny equal educational opportunity to an individual on account of his or her race, color, sex, or national origin by...

(f) the failure by an educational agency to take appropriate action to overcome language barriers that impede equal participation by its students in its instructional programs. (Emphasis supplied.)

Major Federal Cases Interpreting Section 1703 (f)

The State Department of Education relies on three major federal cases which have interpreted Section 1703 (f): Castañeda v. Pickard (5th Cir. 1981) 648 F.. 2d 989, Gómez v. Illinois State Bd. of Education (7th Cir..) 1030, and Keyes v. School Dist. No. 1 (D. Col. 1983) 576 F. Supp. 1503. The most important portions of each of these three cases are quoted here:

1. Castañeda v. Pickard

In a case... in which the appropriateness of a particular school system's language remediation is challenged under § 1703 (f)... the responsibility of the federal court is threefold. First, the court must examine carefully the evidence the record contains concerning the soundness of the educational theory of principles upon which the challenged program is based... The court's second inquiry would be whether the programs and practices actually used by the school system are reasonably calculated to implement effectively the educational theory adopted by the school... Finally, . . . if a school's program, although premised on a legitimate educational theory and implemented through the use of adequate techniques, fails, after being employed for a period of time sufficient to give the plan a legitimate trial, to produce results indicating that the language barriers confronting students are actually being overcome, that program may, at that time, no longer constitute appropriate action as far as that school is concerned. (Castañeda, at pp. 1009-1010.)

In order to be able ultimately to participate equally with the students who entered school with an English language background, the limited English speaking students will have to acquire both English language proficiency comparable to that of the average native speakers and to recoup any deficits which they may incur in other areas of the curriculum as a result of this extra expenditure of time on English language development. (Id. at p. 1011.)

As in any educational program, qualified teachers are a critical component of the success of a language remediation program. A bilingual education program, however sound in theory, is unlikely to have a significant impact on the language barriers confronting limited English speaking school children, if the teachers charged with day-to-day responsibility for educating these children are termed 'qualified' despite the fact that they operate in the classroom under their own unremedied language disability. The use of Spanish speaking aides may be an appropriate interim measure, but such aides cannot, [the district] acknowledges, take the place of qualified bilingual teachers. (Id. at p. 1043.)

2. Gómez v. Illinois State Board of Education

Section 1703(f) requires that state, as well as local, educational agencies ensure that the needs of EL are met. (Gómez, at p. 1043.)

Exactly what state educational agencies must do beyond establishing the minimums for the implementation of language remediation program and enforcing those minimums is not at issue in the instant appeal, because the plaintiffs have done no more than allege that the defendants failed even to establish the minimums needed for identifying and placing EL. (Id. at p. 1043.)

3. Keyes v. School District No 1

The key to an effective elementary bilingual classroom is the ability of the teacher to communicate with the children. Thus, if it is expected that understandable instruction will take place, there must be assurance that the teacher has the necessary bilingual skills. (Keyes, at p. 1516.)

California Law

State Constitution: Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses

A person may not be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law or denied equal protection of the laws. (Article I, Section 7a)

Former State Bilingual Education Act; A.B. 507

This Act established specific bilingual program requirements for identification, instruction, staffing assignments, classroom composition, reclassification, and parent involvement.

California's Sunset Statutes

Sunset is defined in Education Code Section 62000 as follows:

Sunset and sunset date, as used in this part, mean the date on which specific categorical programs cease to be operative and Sections 62002, 62003, 62004, 62005, and 62005.5 govern program funding.

The educational programs referred to in Sections 62000.1 to 62000.5, inclusive, shall cease to be operative on the date specified, unless the Legislature enacts legislation to continue the program after the review prescribed in Section 62006. (Emphasis supplied.)

Accordingly, there are five sunset statutes which govern the bilingual education program, which sunsetted on June 30, 1987: Sections 62002, 62003, 62004, 62005, and 62005.5. Of these, the most important is Section 62002. It states:

If the Legislature does not enact legislation to continue a program listed in Sections 62000.1 to 62000.5, inclusive, the funding of that program shall continue for the general purpose of that program as specified in the provisions relating to the establishment and operation of the program. The funds shall be disbursed according to the identification criteria and allocation formulas for the program in effect on the date the program shall cease to be operative pursuant to Section 62000.1 to 62000.5, inclusive, both with regard to state-to-district and district-to-school disbursements. The funds shall be used for the intended purposes of the program but all relevant statutes and regulations adopted thereto regarding the use of the funds shall not be operative, except as specified in Section 62002.5. (Emphasis supplied.)

When Section 62002 is applied to the intent section of A.B. 507, former Section 52161, eight "general" or "intended" purposes are located. They are:

1. The primary goal of all bilingual programs is, as effectively and efficiently as possible, to develop in each child fluency in English.
2. The program must "provide equal opportunity for academic achievement, including, when necessary, academic instruction through the primary language."
3. The program must provide "positive reinforcement of the self-image of participating pupils."

4. The program must "promote cross-cultural understanding."
5. California school districts are required "to offer bilingual learning opportunities to each pupil of limited English proficiency enrolled in the public schools."
6. California school districts are required "to provide adequate supplemental financial support" in order to offer such bilingual learning opportunities.
7. Insofar as the individual pupil is concerned, participation in bilingual programs is voluntary on the part of the parent or guardian.
8. School districts must "provide for in-service programs to qualify existing and future personnel in the bilingual and cross-cultural skills necessary to serve the pupils of limited English proficiency of this state."

The other major sunset statute is Section 62002.5. It provides for parent advisory committees and school site councils in the following manner:

Parent advisory committees and school site councils which are in existence pursuant to statutes or regulations as of January 1, 1979 shall continue subsequent to the termination of funding for the programs sun-setted by this chapter. Any school receiving funds from Economic Impact Aid or Bilingual Education Aid subsequent to the sun-setting of these programs as provided in this chapter, shall establish a school site council in conformance with the requirements in Section 52012. The functions and responsibilities of such advisory committees and school site councils shall continue as prescribed by the appropriate law or regulation in effect as of January 1, 1979. (Emphasis supplied.)

Introduction and Demographics

California has the most diverse student population in the world, with more than 100 languages spoken in the homes of those students. Today, our student population is “majority-minority.” Forty-one percent of our students speak a language other than English at home, and a quarter of all California public school students are struggling to learn the English language in school.

Sadly, too many people view such diversity as a big problem. I don’t. Instead, I say: Imagine the potential of that diversity in today’s and tomorrow’s –global economy. If we educate these students well, our state would not only be able to compete more effectively, but it would be able to lead our nation and the world economically.

*Jack O’Connell, Superintendent of Public Instruction
State of Education remarks, 2006*

Nearly 1.6 million pupils in the kindergarten through grade twelve (K-12) public educational system in California, or one in four, are ELs. This represents almost one-third of the ELs in the nation. ELs are enrolled in almost every district and in the vast majority of schools in the state. Approximately 85 percent are Spanish speaking, 2.2 percent are Vietnamese speaking, and 1.5 percent are Hmong speaking.

ELs face the daunting task of learning the academic curriculum and a new language concurrently. They need to learn English quickly enough and fluently enough to participate in academic work, and like all children, learn grade level mathematics, reading/language arts, social studies, and science.

The law governing the educational services for ELs is varied and consists of both state and federal requirements. Federal law clearly takes precedence over state law if there is a conflict. Therefore, districts must ensure that they comply with all federal requirements while also implementing state requirements. Applicable legal citations referenced are included in the responses, as appropriate.

Identification and Placement

1. Who is identified as an EL?

An EL is a K-12 student who, based on objective assessment, has not developed listening, speaking, reading, and writing proficiencies in English sufficient for participation in the regular school program. These students are sometimes referred to as Limited English Proficient (LEP). The process for identification is described in the California English Language Development Test (CELDT) Assistance Packet for School Districts at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/assistancepkt.asp>.

2. What is the program placement for ELs in California?

An English language classroom is the placement for ELs in California, unless a parental exception waiver is granted for an alternative program. There are two types of English language classrooms: Structured English Immersion (SEI) and English Language Mainstream. SEI classrooms are designed for students with less than “reasonable fluency”. An English language mainstream classroom is designed for students with “reasonable fluency” or a “good working knowledge of English”. Typically, ELs scoring at the beginning to intermediate levels on the CELDT are considered to have less than “reasonable fluency” (California Education Code [EC] Section 305).

An EL shall be transferred from a SEI classroom to an English language mainstream classroom when the pupil has acquired a reasonable level of English proficiency (EC 305). However, at any time, including during the school year, a parent or guardian may have his or her child moved into an English language mainstream classroom (California Code of Regulations [CCR], Title 5, section 11301).

3. What is SEI?

SEI, also known as “Sheltered English Immersion”, is an English language acquisition process for young children in which nearly all classroom instruction is in English, but with curriculum and presentation designed for children who are learning the language (EC 306).

Typically, SEI includes: (1) English language development (ELD) appropriate to each student’s level of English proficiency, (2) content instruction utilizing specially designed academic instruction in English (SDAIE) whenever needed for full access to the core, and (3) may include primary language support. Usually, SEI is for ELs scoring at the beginning through intermediate levels on CELDT.

The California Department of Education (CDE) has consistently advised LEAs of their legal obligation to provide the minimum program elements of ELD, formerly known as ESL, and access to the core curriculum (Castaneda v. Pickard, 1981). See question 19 for additional information regarding ELD.

4. Must all ELs be enrolled in an SEI program for one year?

ELs who lack reasonable fluency in English, as defined by the district, must be placed in a SEI program unless their parent/guardian requests placement in an English language mainstream classroom or is granted a parental exception waiver for an alternative program. Of course, all ELs must receive additional and appropriate educational services until they are reclassified (EC 305, CCR, Title 5, sections 11301 and 11302).

5. May EL students be re-enrolled in a SEI program?

Yes. An English learner may be re-enrolled in a structured English program not normally intended to exceed one year if the pupil has not achieved a reasonable level of English proficiency unless the parents or guardians of the pupil object to the extended placement (CCR, Title 5, section 11301).

6. What is a Dual Language Program or Two-Way Immersion Program?

Two-way immersion programs integrate language minority students (ELs) and language majority students (English speakers) in order to develop their bilingualism and biliteracy in English and another language. In two-way programs, the model selected generally prescribes the amount of time spent in the target (non-English) language. Dual Language Program or Two-Way Immersion Program is one of the instructional delivery approaches under the alternative program. For more information, please visit <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/el/ip>.

7. What does a parent need to do to have his/her child placed in an English language mainstream classroom?

The parent/guardian of an EL need only request this placement. This does not entail going through the waiver process. (CCR, Title 5, sections 11301[b]).

8. What does a parent need to do to have his/her child placed in an alternative program?

The parent/guardian may request a waiver to allow his/her child to participate in an alternative program following local district waiver procedures. The final decision to grant or deny the request lies with the principal and educational staff who must apply the standard found at CCR, Title 5, section 11309(b)(4).

9. Must students under waiver option EC 311(c) be placed in an English language classroom for 30 days each year?

No. EL students with approved waivers need only be placed in an English language classroom for 30 days in their initial school year in California. Although the waiver request must be submitted annually, in subsequent years the student need not repeat the 30 day trial period.

10. Where may SEI take place?

SEI may take place in any educational setting where the teacher is qualified to provide it.

11. Where can we get information about developing programs for linguistically and culturally diverse students?

CDE has a list of resources with information about developing programs for linguistically and culturally diverse students at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/el/er>.

Curriculum and Instruction

12. What responsibilities do districts have to provide full access to grade-level core curriculum for ELs?

Districts must ensure that all students meet grade-level core curriculum standards within a reasonable amount of time. If a district chooses to emphasize ELD before full access to the core curriculum or if the student does not comprehend enough English to allow full access to the core curriculum, the district must develop and successfully implement a plan for ELs to recoup any and all academic deficits before the deficits become irreparable (CCR, Title 5, sections 11302[a] and [b]).

13. What are the ELD standards?

The English-language Development Standards are designed to supplement the English-language arts content standards to ensure that LEP students (now called ELs in California) develop proficiency in both the English language and the concepts and skills contained in the English-language arts content standards. The standards are designed to assist teachers in moving ELs to fluency in English and proficiency in the English-language arts content standards. The ELD standards were also used to develop the CELDT. The ELD standards can be downloaded at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/admin.asp>.

(English-Language Development Standards for California Public Schools, 1999)

14. Must the language of instruction used by the teaching personnel in an English language classroom be “overwhelmingly” the English language?

Yes. In all English language classrooms, the language of instruction used by the teaching personnel must be “overwhelmingly” the English language. In SEI programs however, “nearly all” classroom instruction is in English. It is the responsibility of each district to define “overwhelmingly” and “nearly all” in order to determine how much primary language instruction or support is permitted (EC 306 and 310).

15. May primary language literacy development take place in California schools?

Although instruction in English language classrooms must be overwhelmingly in English, instruction need not be exclusively in English. In alternative programs, instruction may be provided in English as well as in a language other than English.

16. How long must districts provide services to ELs?

School districts are required to continue to provide additional and appropriate educational services to English learners until they have demonstrated English-language skills comparable to that of the district’s average native English-language speakers and have recouped any academic deficits which may have been incurred in other areas of the core curriculum (CCR, Title 5, section 11302). Services must continue until ELs meet objective reclassification criteria (EC 313). This means that EL students must be provided with ELD and SDAIE, as needed, and/or primary language instruction until they are redesignated as fluent English proficient (FEP).

17. Does a district have any responsibility for monitoring redesignated/reclassified students?

Yes. Districts receiving Title III funds are required under No Child Left Behind (NCLB) to monitor students for two years after redesignation (NCLB, Section 3121[a][4]).

18. May SDAIE in content classes be considered part of SEI?

Yes. However, ELD must also be part of the defined SEI. SDAIE is defined, for purpose of teacher credentialing, as instruction in a subject area, delivered in English, that is specially designed to meet the needs of limited-English-proficient pupils. SDAIE is an instructional methodology, not a program (EC 44253.2[b]).

19. Are all ELs required to receive ELD appropriate to their English proficiency level?

Yes. During the regular day, differentiated ELD instruction appropriate to the English proficiency level of each EL must be provided by an authorized teacher until the student is reclassified. Districts are to provide ELs with instruction using whatever materials are deemed appropriate that are specifically designed to enable students at each level of English language proficiency to acquire academic English rapidly, efficiently, and effectively. The law does not require a specific number of minutes of ELD for all ELs. Each district has the discretion to determine the amount of time appropriate for students at different English language proficiency levels. The district should have a rationale for the scheduling and amount of ELD students are receiving that bears relation to progress in English (Castañeda v. Pickard, 1981). For the suggested amount of instructional minutes for ELD, consult the State Board of Education (SBE) adopted criteria for reading/language arts/ELD instructional materials contained in the 2008 Framework posted at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ci/rl/cf>.

20. Is it mandatory to provide EL services to pupils whose parents do not want their children to receive those services?

Parents may request that their children be exempted from a specific instructional setting (CCR, Title 5, section 11301 (b)). However, districts still have an obligation to ensure that students receive ELD and access to other core content areas from teachers who are qualified to provide such instruction (Castañeda v. Pickard, 1981).

21. What are the options for introducing English Literacy?

In English Language classrooms (SEI and mainstream) English literacy is introduced immediately. In alternative classrooms, literacy is also introduced immediately; the formal introduction of English literacy depends on the program design.

22. What instructional materials can LEAs use to provide ELD instruction?

Districts and schools have a variety of resources and instructional materials available to support ELD instruction.

For grades kindergarten through grade eight, state-adopted materials contain ELD support components. In addition, the current list includes intervention materials for ELs. The list of state-adopted reading/language arts materials is available on the CDE Web site at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ci/rl/im>.

For grades nine through twelve, there are no state-adopted instructional materials. Local district governing boards adopt instructional materials for use in their high schools.

Districts may also use the correlation matrices of English-language arts and ELD standards that are found at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ci/cr/cf/corrmatrixes.asp>. These correlation matrices were developed for the review of supplemental instructional materials for ELs under Senate Bill (SB) 1113. The list of instructional materials approved for purchase by districts under this program is at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/be/ag/ag/yr05/documents/bluese05item27a1.pdf>.

23. What materials should be provided to our ELs?

ELs must be provided standards-aligned instructional materials. For kindergarten through grade eight, these are state-adopted instructional materials in mathematics, science, reading/language arts, and history-social science that are consistent with the content and cycles of the curriculum frameworks and include universal access features that address the needs of ELs. For grades nine through twelve local governing boards should adopt standards-aligned materials for all students that include universal access features. More information is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ci/cr/cf/williamsimfaq.asp>.

PARENTAL EXCEPTION WAIVERS

24. When are parental exception waivers required?

When the parent/guardian of an EL wishes to have his/her student placed in a program that is an alternative to SEI, or an English language mainstream classroom, a waiver is required. An alternative program is likely to be some form of bilingual education such as the Two-Way program (EC 310,311).

25. Are districts obligated to establish a parental exception waiver process?

Yes. School districts must establish procedures for granting parental exception waivers. These procedures must be approved by the local governing board. (CCR, Title 5, section 11309; EC 310 and 311)

26. What is the standard that schools and districts must use in making decisions to grant or deny a parent's waiver request?

Parental exception waivers shall be granted unless the school principal and educational staff have determined that an alternative program . . . would not be better suited for the overall educational development of the pupil (CCR, Title 5, section 11309 [b][4]).

27. If I am denied a parental exception waiver, what are my options?

In cases where a parental exception waiver is denied, parents/guardians must be informed in writing of the reason(s) for denial and advised of any procedures that exist to appeal the decision to the local board of education or their right to appeal to a court. A parent may also request a SBE review of the district's waiver procedure.

Parents always have the right to address the district's board of education regarding any issues of concern. Parents may also file a formal complaint under the district's Uniform Complaint Procedures (CCR, Title 5, sections 11309 [d]).

28. If an alternative program is not offered at a specific school site, is the district obligated to provide transportation to a district school where an alternative program is available?

If the district provides transportation to other optional or voluntary programs, such as magnet programs, academies, or other alternative programs, it must provide transportation to the alternative program that is available.

29. Are there resources to assist LEA staff in locating parental notification documents translated into non-English languages?

Yes. The Clearinghouse for Multilingual Documents (CMD) is a Web-based resource that provides information about public and secondary educational documents translated into non-English languages by California educational agencies. Developed by the CDE, the CMD helps districts and county offices to locate useful translations of parental notification documents and reduce redundant translation efforts. In so doing, the CMD helps schools to meet state and federal requirements for document translation and parental notification, including the requirements in EC 48985, the NCLB Act of 2001, and other legislation. More information is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ls/pf/cm/>.

STAFFING

30. Are the Bilingual Cross-cultural Language and Academic Development (BCLAD), Cross-cultural Language and Academic Development (CLAD), or their equivalent authorizations required to teach ELs?

Yes. The type of authorization required depends on the type of instruction provided to ELs. More information is available at <http://www.ctc.ca.gov>.

31. Does California state law require that teachers of ELs attain authorization to provide instruction to ELs?

Yes. Specific requirements are provided in the CDE's FAQs for Teacher Authorization for ELs in California at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/el/t3>.

32. Do the Highly Qualified Teachers Credentialing Requirements for ELs also apply to Teachers from Abroad?

Yes. Out-of-state and foreign nationals must fully meet the Highly Qualified Credentialing Requirements. Foreign nationals have one year to pass the California Basic Educational Skills Test. During the first year in California they are considered highly qualified if they are eligible and apply for any of the approved California Commission on Teacher Credentialing credentials. Federal law requires that J-1 visa exchange visitors return to their home country after three years. During the first year in California, foreign nationals may obtain the emergency BCLAD authorization to work with ELs in regular classroom settings and some special education assignments. Since most of the teachers are “not new” to the profession, they benefit from the High Objective Uniform State Standards of Evaluation (HOUSSE) options.

HOUSSE options, as currently established, are effective until June 30, 2007. For more information regarding Highly Qualified Teachers Credentialing Requirements and HOUSSE, visit <http://www.cde.ca.gov/nclb/sr/tg/nclb04faqs.asp>.

Testing, Assessment and Accountability

33. What is the California ELD Test?

Federal and state laws require a state test of English language proficiency that school districts must give to students who are ELs. The California test is called the CELDT. All students whose primary language is not English must take the test within 30 calendar days after they are enrolled in a California public school for the first time. The CELDT also must be given once each year to ELs until they are reclassified as fluent English proficient. More information on the CELDT is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/assistancepkt.asp>.

34. What is the purpose of the CELDT?

The purpose of the CELDT is: (1) to identify new students who are ELs, in kindergarten through grade twelve; (2) to determine their level of English proficiency; (3) to monitor their progress in learning English on an annual basis; and (4) to determine when students have met one of the criteria to be reclassified to FEP status. The Assistance Packet for School Districts/Schools includes facts about the CELDT, release dates of test results, CELDT accommodations, reclassification, and communicating results with parents/guardians. It is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/assistancepkt.asp>.

35. Can parents opt to have their students exempted from taking the CELDT?

No. Parents cannot “opt out” of the CELDT because English language proficiency assessment is both a federal (NCLB Title I, section 1111[b][7] and Title III, 2002) and state requirement (EC 313).

36. Are ELs required to take the tests in the Standardized Testing and Reporting (STAR) program?

Yes. All students in grades two through eleven participate in the STAR program, including students with disabilities and students who are ELs. In addition to the tests administered in English, all Spanish-speaking ELs who have been enrolled in a school in the United States for less than 12 months or who receive instruction in Spanish regardless of how long they have been in school in the United States, must take the designated primary language test (DPLT), formerly the Aprenda 3 (EC 60640). Students whose parents or guardians have submitted written requests to exempt them from STAR program testing do not take any tests (EC 60615). More information is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sr>.

Standards-Based Tests in Spanish (STS) for reading/language arts and mathematics have been developed and will completely replace the DPLT (Aprenda 3) for Spring 2009 testing. The STS blueprints can be viewed at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sr/resources.asp>.

For more information on the California Assessment System, a chart is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sa/caassessment.asp>.

37. What assistance can be provided to ELs when taking the tests in the STAR program?

ELs may use translation glossaries or word lists (English-to-primary language) that do not include definitions or formulas for all subjects, except English-language arts. They also may have the test directions translated for them and ask clarifying questions in their own language for all subjects, including English-language arts. These variations are described on the last page of the Matrix of Test Variations, Accommodations and Modifications for Administration of California Statewide Assessments available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sr>.

38. Are there established guidelines for school districts to use in reclassifying ELs to fluent English proficient?

The SBE has established guidelines, based on EC 313(d), for school districts to use in reclassifying students from EL to fluent English proficient. The guidelines are listed in the CELDT Assistance Packet for School Districts/Schools at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/el/documents/section2astpkt.pdf>.

39. How can districts evaluate ELs to get a comprehensive view of the student's academic standing?

To get a comprehensive view of a student's academic standing, districts should utilize all available standardized assessments (i.e. STAR results, CELDT results, Aprenda 3 results, STS results, etc.) as well as district assessments, academic coursework, and relevant program information. The goal should be to monitor student's progress to ensure students are gaining English proficiency and improving their academic knowledge.

40. What are Annual Measurable Achievement Objectives (AMAOs)?

Title III requires that states hold LEAs accountable for meeting three AMAOs for ELs. The AMAOs were approved by the SBE. The first AMAO relates to making annual progress on the CELDT, the second relates to attaining English proficiency, and the third AMAO relates to meeting Adequate Yearly Progress by the EL subgroup. A description of the AMAOs is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/el/t3/acct.asp>. For more information regarding Title III, visit <http://www.cde.ca.gov/sp/el/t3>.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

(Special education and Section 504 Accommodation Plan students)

41. Will a student's Individualized Education Program (IEP) or 504 Accommodation Plan take precedence over provisions of Proposition 227?

Yes. The requirements in a student's IEP or Section 504 Accommodation Plan are federal legal requirements and take precedence over the provisions of Proposition 227. If either plan calls for primary language instruction, the student does not need a parental exception waiver to receive such instruction. State and federal law require that ELs with an IEP or a federal 504 Accommodation Plan continue to receive the programs and services that address the student's special needs, including linguistically appropriate goals and objectives. At a minimum, instructional and linguistic services must include the provision of ELD and full access to the core curriculum as specified in the student's written program or plan.

42. What if an IEP or 504 Accommodation Plan clearly states that no standardized tests are to be given?

An IEP is required to state how a student is to be tested for English proficiency, not if a student is to be tested for English proficiency. A student's IEP team can determine that the student is severely disabled and that an alternate assessment is to be used for all or any portion of the CELDT or that a student is to be assessed with the CELDT using appropriate accommodations or modifications. IEPs must list accommodations, modifications, or alternative assessment for any or all sections L, S, R, and W. IEP teams should consult the Special Education Accommodations/Modifications Matrix for California Statewide Assessments to determine specific testing variations. The matrix is located on the CDE Web site at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/sa/documents/matrix5.pdf>.

43. What services and types of instruction must ELs receive when following an IEP or a Section 504 Accommodation Plan?

An IEP or Section Accommodation 504 teams must determine which services are appropriate for ELs, based on their particular disabilities and level of English proficiency. Regardless of services prescribed, ELs must also receive ELD instruction.

44. For ELs with an IEP or Section 504 Accommodation Plan, are parent notifications, administration of assessments, and evaluation results only to be provided in English?

No. State and federal law continue to require that parent notifications for ELs be provided in the parent's primary language unless it is not practicable. Student assessments must be conducted in the student's primary language. If it is clearly not feasible or appropriate, the student must still receive valid alternative assessments. The results of the assessments must be presented to the parents in a language that they can understand (CCR, Title 5, sections 3040 [b] and EC 56320[a]).

45. Who should refer an EL for Special Education and under what circumstances?

All instructional personnel are responsible for referring an EL student through the locally adopted referral process if a disability is suspected. Parents may also request an assessment in writing. IEP teams must determine whether an EL student meets the eligibility criteria for special education and requires special education and related services in order to benefit from this educational program. A determination that the learning difficulty is not the result of cultural or linguistic diversity is also made. Students should not be referred for special education solely on the basis that they do not understand or are limited in their ability to understand English. To do so would violate both state and federal laws which protect the educational rights of these children.

46. What credentials or qualifications are required for teachers of ELs with disabilities?

All linguistic and academic services for ELs with disabilities described in their IEPs or Section 504 Accommodation Plans must be provided by qualified teachers who have credentials that authorize instruction to students with disabilities and ELs. Special education instruction must be provided by:

(1) a teacher with both a special education and the appropriate EL credential or certificate (BCLAD, CLAD, SB 1969, or SB 2913); or (2) by a team of teachers with the appropriate credentials.

OTHER QUESTIONS

47. What is the Language Census (R-30)?

It is an annual data collection on students with non-English language backgrounds. It includes data pertaining to EL and FEP students, instructional settings, staff who provide services to ELs and other related information. (CCR, Title 5, section 1307). Frequently asked questions are available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ds/sd/lc/faq.asp>.

48. Are school and district English Learner Advisory Committees required?

Yes. These committees are still required and their legal responsibilities remain unchanged (CCR, Title 5, section 11308).

49. Does the CDE review districts' compliance with EL regulations?

All schools are subject to review through the Categorical Program Monitoring. More information is available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/cr/cc>.

50. Are schools still required to provide information to parents in their primary language?

Yes. When 15 percent or more of the pupils enrolled in the school speak a single primary language other than English, all notices, reports, statements, or records sent by the school or district to the parent/guardian of any such pupil must, in addition to being written in English, be written in such primary language, and may be responded to by the parent or guardian in English or in the primary language. In addition, federal law requires that schools and districts provide information in an understandable format and to the extent practicable in a language that is understandable to the parent, regardless of percentage of students that speak a language other than English (EC 48985; NCLB 1111[h][6][C] and 3302 [c]).

51. When is the use of primary language permitted for instruction for pre-school for ELs?

There are no statutory provisions that address the use of the primary language in programs designed for pre-school pupils. LEAs, unless required by the legal provisions of a specific funding source, have flexibility in deciding the use of instructional approaches that use the primary language as a medium of instruction or the objective of instruction.

52. Is it mandatory for ELs to attend zero period to receive intervention?

No. Zero period is typically a before or after school program and is not state mandated. The decision to provide intervention in the form of a zero period is a local decision. Intervention requirements for state-monitored schools are available at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/lp/vl/documents/egaps.pdf>.

53. May ELs participate in Reading First?

Regardless of program placement, any EL student may participate in Reading First. The program is available in English and has two parallel versions in Spanish (Foro Abierto and Lectura). It should be noted that the goal of Reading First is to have students reading at grade level in English by the end of grade three.

What is the California English Language Development Test?

Federal and state laws require a state test that school districts must give to students whose home language is not English. In California, this test is called the California English Language Development Test (CELDT).

What is the purpose of the CELDT?

The purpose of this test is:

- ▶ To identify new students who are English learners, in kindergarten through grade twelve.
- ▶ To determine their level of English proficiency.
- ▶ To annually assess their progress in learning English.

Who is an English learner?

An English learner is a student, with a home language other than English, who is not yet proficient in English.

Who must take the CELDT?

All students whose primary language on the Home Language Survey is not English must take the test within 30 calendar days after they are enrolled in a California public school for the first time. The CELDT also must be given once each year to English learners until they become proficient in English. Parents and guardians cannot remove (opt out) their children from this requirement.

Do English learners with disabilities take the CELDT?

Yes. All English learners must take the CELDT, and this includes English learners with disabilities. Students with disabilities who take the CELDT may use test variations, accommodations, modifications, and/or alternate assessments as specified in their individualized education programs (IEPs) or Section 540 plans.

What does the CELDT cover?

The CELDT for students in grades two through twelve covers listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Beginning in 2009–10, students in kindergarten and grade one will be assessed in early literacy (reading and writing). The 2007–08 CELDT administration for students in kindergarten and grade one only covers listening and speaking. The CELDT in all grades tested is based on California English language development standards, adopted by the State Board of Education.

Who gives the CELDT?

Only trained examiners give the test. The speaking part of the CELDT is given individually to each student. The listening, reading, and writing domains are given to groups of students.

How long does it take for students to complete the CELDT?

The speaking domain of the test takes about 10 to 15 minutes for each student to complete. The listening, reading, and writing domains combined take about 2 hours to complete. The writing domain may be divided into two sessions.

How are the CELDT results reported for individual students?

There are five levels of performance a student can achieve. They are Beginning, Early Intermediate, Intermediate, Early Advanced, and Advanced.

The report for each student provides:

- ▶ The overall performance level and score
- ▶ A performance level and score for each domain of the test (listening, speaking, reading and writing)
- ▶ A comprehension score (average of the scores for listening and reading)

How are results of the CELDT used?

Test results for newly enrolled students are used to help identify English learners who need to develop their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills in English. Results from annual CELDT testing are used to see how well students are learning English. School districts use the annual results as one of four criteria to help decide when students may be reclassified as fluent English proficient (RFEP).

What other criteria are used to decide when students may be reclassified?

Additional reclassification criteria used by school districts include performance in basic skills (the California English-Language Arts Standards Test), teacher evaluation, and parent opinion and consultation.

How can parents or guardians find out more about the CELDT or their student's results?

Parents or guardians who wish more information about the CELDT or their student's results on the CELDT, should contact their student's teacher and/or school office. Parents or guardians also are invited to request a conference to review the CELDT results or to attend one of the information meetings scheduled by the school.

For more information...

Information about the CELDT is on the CELDT Web page at <http://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/tg/ell/>.

However, I do not wish to have my child enrolled in a Structured English Immersion Program at _____ School.

The goals of English learner programs are for students to become fully proficient in English as rapidly and effectively as possible and master state standards for academic achievement so they can meet the district's exit/reclassification criteria.

The district's reclassification criteria are indicated below:

Required Criteria (Education Code 313)	Marysville Joint Unified School District Criteria
CELDT	Overall Proficiency Level (OPL) of Advanced or Early Advanced with all subtest scores of Intermediate or higher.
Teacher Evaluation of Academic Performance	The student's teacher(s) must recommend the student based on academic performance, including grades. The teacher will use classroom evidence and results from the first district benchmark in English Language Arts to ensure that the student is performing like their English only speaking peers. It is strongly recommended that student also holds a GPA of 2.0 in all academic classes.

Check all boxes to indicate that you have read and understand the following:

- ☐ I have been advised of the benefits of a Structured English Immersion Program for my child. I understand that it is a specialized process of teaching the English language to students whose first language is not English. The goal of this program is for students to develop academic proficiency in English together with mastery of academic core content.
- ☐ Even though my child will not be in the Structured English Immersion program, I understand that my child will continue to receive specialized support services in the Mainstream English Program, which will include daily English Language Development at my child's assessed stage of English acquisition until reclassified as required by California State law. Other special support options may also include: tutoring, content instruction using SDAIE techniques, primary language instruction or Strategic, and/or Intensive interventions, before and/or after school intervention programs, and/or ELD summer academy.
- ☐ I will meet with the principal and/or teacher by the end of the next reporting period to review my child's progress, and discuss the possibility of any needed program changes.
- ☐ I understand the Request to Withdraw from Structured English Immersion Program must be submitted annually.

Intervention Catch-Up Plan for EL and Reclassified Students

Individual Learning Plan (ILP)

English learners and reclassified students who are identified as making inadequate progress will be provided with appropriate intervention (Catch-up) programs using the following procedures:

1. Notification

By October, the teacher or principal appointed designee will identify EL and R-FEP students not meeting the English Language Benchmarks for CST. For newcomers to the district, the deadline will be January. A letter will be mailed home notifying parents.

At the end of each grading term, EL and R-FEP students who are not making satisfactory progress will be identified. A letter will be mailed home to the parents.

*Once parents have been notified, the teacher will make use of Pre-Referral Checklist in order to utilize intervention strategies prior to holding a parent teacher meeting.

2. Parent-Teacher Meeting

A Parent-Teacher meeting will be held to discuss the educational needs of the identified EL or R-FEP student.

3. Catch-Up Plan

The student's English and/or academic needs will be discussed with the parent/s. An Intervention Catch-Up Plan (Parts 1 and 2) will be developed specifying the intervention programs/services to assist the student in meeting the goals. All records will be held in the green folder.

4. Intervention Program and Progress Monitoring

The identified student will be provided with the intervention programs/services as specified in the Intervention Catch-Up Plan (Part 2). His/her progress is to be carefully monitored throughout the school year. Adjustments and modifications are made when necessary. All records of the student's progress are kept in the student's green folder.

5. First Year Progress Monitoring and Program Evaluation

At the end of the first year's intervention program, the student's classroom teacher, ELD coordinator, or counselor will assess the student's growth and the effectiveness of the Intervention Catch-Up Plan.

- a) If the student continues to make inadequate progress, a Parent-Teacher Meeting will be conducted with the participation of the Principal or designee. A new Intervention Catch-Up Plan will be developed based on the analysis of the student's needs and the results of the evaluation from the previous intervention program(s).
- b) Group data will be further disaggregated and examined to measure the effectiveness of the various intervention programs for different groups of English Learners.

6. Second Year Progress Monitoring and Program Evaluation

At the end of the second year's intervention program, the student's most recent data is reviewed by the classroom teacher, ELD coordinator, or counselor to assess the student's growth and the program's effectiveness. If the student continues to make inadequate progress in the second year, he/she will be referred to the Student Study Team (SST) for a more comprehensive examination of his/her needs and program planning. The student's progress and the program effectiveness will then be monitored thorough the SST process.

Dear Parent(s) and/or Guardian(s) of Student:_____

State and Federal laws require all school districts in California to give a state test each year to every student whose home language is not English. The name of the test is the California English Language Development Test (CELDT). Its purpose is to determine how well each student tested can listen, speak, read, and write in English. Your student has been given the CELDT test and the recent score results are attached. This information is a guide to your child's current instructional program.

An annual assessment and placement, using these results, and other academic criteria, will be provided for your student before the end of the school year. You are encouraged to actively participate in your child's education and his/her development of English language skills.

Sincerely,

Principal _____ Date_____
